Dear Mr. Borchard:

I have amended and reduced the above-referenced claim to agree with the water right license, as instructed by your brother, Paul Borchard, who is managing your property here in Idaho.

Please sign one copy of the amended claim, have your signature notarized, and return it to me for our files. The other copy is for your files.

Please return the signed claim promptly as we are presently completing our director's report on this area of the Snake River Adjudication.

Thank you.

Re: A36-02285

Mr. John H. Borchard

Dear Mr. Borchard:

The Adjudication claim must match the licensed water right. If an expanded claim is used, the date of the expanded use must have started before March, 1963. You have indicated your expansion of acres irrigated occurred in 1979 or 80, so you must now file an "application for a permit" to include the 46 additional acres that you are now irrigating over and above your licensed 194 acres.

I have enclosed an "application for permit" form (with an instruction pamphlet) for you use in making the necessary application. I have also enclosed a "proof reading report" of your license and a "proof reading report" of your adjudication claim on this property to assist you in filling out the application for permit. I have also enclosed a copy of the aerial photo used for claim A36-02285 (your property) to aid you in making a sketch of the irrigated place of use as called for under item 13 of the application form.

Let us know if we can be of further assistance.

Respectfully,

PAUL BORCHARD

I called to see if they were pursuing the application for permit for additional acres - None had been filed at this date.

He said he spoke to his brother John, and although the entire farm is made up of 240 acres the most they irrigate is closer to the 194 as licensed. The six center pivots are all that is irrigated.
