Re: Additional Points of Diversion

Today Mr. Ray Sauer, claimant, came and visited with me about the points of diversion on this claim. The claim references four irrigation wells which are used on the pivots. However there is a stockwater well and a domestic well on the property that are used to irrigate some trees and lawn area, which may exceed domestic limitations.

In reviewing this claim, please consider amending the claim to include the domestic and stockwater wells as points of diversion to allow for this irrigation, if necessary.

The original claim needs no adjustment of place of use.

Hi Bryce,

The original claim should be in Eastern. I have started an investigation file, so if the memo is helpful for the investigation, I would appreciate a copy. The original memo should stay with the original claim.
