Re: Evidence of Priority Date

Dear Claimant:

I first wrote to you of this matter on January 10 of this year and have received no further correspondence from you. PLEASE NOTE: If no evidence is submitted for the claim by the date above, IDWR will recommend the SRBA Court decree the claim be disallowed.

The Notice of Claim to a Water Right (claim) identified with the number shown above your name has been filed in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). As it stands, 67-4563 claims 0.03 cfs for 1 acre of irrigation with a 1900 priority date. In my initial review, it appears your intention was to claim approximately ½ acre of irrigation. If you wish to pursue the claim as it stands, evidence of the priority date must be submitted. I explain how to do so below.

There is another option for your claim if you do indeed only irrigate ½ acre. You can amend your claim to show the purpose of use as domestic. A domestic claim will provide water use for a house and up to ½ acre of irrigation not to exceed 13,000 gallons per day. I have enclosed an amended claim should you prefer to take this route. If you choose to amend your claim, you do not need to provide evidence of the priority date.

The priority date, or date of first use, for 67-4563 has not been confirmed. The claim indicates your water usage is based on "Beneficial Use" or a "Statutory Claim." Water rights of this type are established by the historic use of water, dating back to when water was first used for the purpose claimed. Proof must be provided by you supporting the priority date claimed and the historic use of the water.

Enclosed you will find a computer printout of your claim and the pamphlet entitled "Evidence of Priority." The pamphlet describes the types of evidence required and suggests which documents will fulfill this requirement. A map of the general area stated in your claim is also enclosed. Please outline the location of lands irrigated based on your claim, as well as the location of any points of diversion (in your case, the location of the well for 67-4563), if possible. Please submit the completed map along with your evidence of priority. This will assist me in making a more accurate recommendation of your claim(s). If you decide to amend your claim to domestic use, a map with the location of the well and land irrigated would be most helpful.

It will be to your advantage to provide clear and convincing evidence. If you choose to submit statements from individuals as evidence, the statement should be in the form of a notarized affidavit (form enclosed). Again, if you decide to amend your claim to domestic use, no evidence need be submitted.

Please submit the required evidence supporting the priority date and the historic use, referencing all documents with the corresponding claim number. If you have questions not covered by this letter or the enclosed pamphlet, please contact me at (208) 287-4907.

Thank you for your informative letter of June 21, 1983.

no one around here seems to know very much about these forms, or how to instruct people to file.

As this property is a part of the original Fisher family lands we are not sure if water rights were ever filed. and as their hand dug well has since caved in and unoperable we had a new well dug by Hells Canyon irrigation co. So we still don't know if an application for Permit, or a claim to a Water Right is applicable so will include both, and you can use which ever is required.

Re: Evidence of Priority Date

Dear Claimant:

I first wrote to you of this matter on January 10 of this year and have received no further correspondence from you. PLEASE NOTE: If no evidence is submitted for the claim by the date above, IDWR will recommend the SRBA Court decree the claim be disallowed.

The Notice of Claim to a Water Right (claim) identified with the number shown above your name has been filed in the Snake River Basin Adjudication (SRBA). As it stands, 67-4563 claims 0.03 cfs for 1 acre of irrigation with a 1900 priority date. In my initial review, it appears your intention was to claim approximately ½ acre of irrigation. If you wish to pursue the claim as it stands, evidence of the priority date must be submitted. I explain how to do so below.

There is another option for your claim if you do indeed only irrigate ½ acre. You can amend your claim to show the purpose of use as domestic. A domestic claim will provide water use for a house and up to ½ acre of irrigation not to exceed 13,000 gallons per day. I have enclosed an amended claim should you prefer to take this route. If you choose to amend your claim, you do not need to provide evidence of the priority date.

The priority date, or date of first use, for 67-4563 has not been confirmed. The claim indicates your water usage is based on "Beneficial Use" or a "Statutory Claim." Water rights of this type are established by the historic use of water, dating back to when water was first used for the purpose claimed. Proof must be provided by you supporting the priority date claimed and the historic use of the water.

Enclosed you will find a computer printout of your claim and the pamphlet entitled "Evidence of Priority." The pamphlet describes the types of evidence required and suggests which documents will fulfill this requirement. A map of the general area stated in your claim is also enclosed. Please outline the location of lands irrigated based on your claim, as well as the location of any points of diversion (in your case, the location of the well for 67-4563), if possible. Please submit the completed map along with your evidence of priority. This will assist me in making a more accurate recommendation of your claim(s). If you decide to amend your claim to domestic use, a map with the location of the well and land irrigated would be most helpful.

It will be to your advantage to provide clear and convincing evidence. If you choose to submit statements from individuals as evidence, the statement should be in the form of a notarized affidavit (form enclosed). Again, if you decide to amend your claim to domestic use, no evidence need be submitted.

Please submit the required evidence supporting the priority date and the historic use, referencing all documents with the corresponding claim number. If you have questions not covered by this letter or the enclosed pamphlet, please contact me at (208) 287-4907.

If you no longer own the property to which the claim is appurtenant, please forward this correspondence to the present owner, or return it to Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR). If you have received this correspondence from the previous owner of the property, it is recommended that you file a Change of Ownership form with IDWR in order to receive future mailings and to participate in the Adjudication.

Sincerely,
