deposes and says: My wife, Holly Spiering, and I have owned our ranch in question in its entirety for one year. I have been elected director on the Schwankfelder ditch and after reviewing past water bills and talking with neighboring ranches it seems our ranch was once part of a much larger ranch which has always been used for forage and crop production even before our described priority date. On the enclosed map I have shaded our irrigated ground in blue and put red dots at our points of diversion and stock water sites.
