Good afternoon,

I am emailing you in regards to our phone conversation today. Attached to this email is the Amended Notice of Claim form. Highlighted are the changes made based on our conversation:

- #4, Point of Diversion: Corrected the legal description to represent 1211 Walenta Dr, Moscow ID
- #6, Use: Removed Irrigation and the A.F.A amount. Also, rounded up the C.F.S to .01
- #7, Total Quantity: Rounded up the total C.F.S to .01
- #9, Place of Use: Corrected the legal description to represent 1211 Walenta Dr, Moscow ID, and removed the Irrigation use

If there are any additional changes you would like to make, cross out the incorrect information, in pen write down the correct information, and initial next to it.

Below are comments required of you:

- Please print off the Amended Notice of Claim and fill in all of the information below the yellow arrow on the last page. According to the application, your title is Personal Representative and the name of the organization is Estate Elsie Mann. Then, sign and date the document. Make sure to fill out each blank space, even if they seem like they are duplicates. After you have completed the Amended Notice of Claim, mail it to my attention at the address listed below. I also attached a copy of the original claim for reference.
- Email me the pictures and evidence that is referenced in the claim that was emailed to nia.help@idwr.idaho.gov. I will use the photos as priority date evidence for the claim.

If you have any questions, feel free to call or email me.

Sincerely,

Christopher Holmes

In the 1950's the people who lived in the area indicated it had been "the best water in Moscow". It was not till much later that the deep wells got rid of heavy iron in the Moscow's original city water supply

In the 1940's a basement was dug under the well porch and the house was extended. The pump was moved into the basement.
