Wayne,

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me this morning about the Moscow Elks Club adjudication claim, claim no. 87-7031. Per our discussion, I am sending you an Amended Notice of Claim form, which includes the additional point of diversion (well). I carried over all the information from your previously filed claim, and in doing so, I also discovered that the maximum diversion rate and volume claimed did not include a total of the uses as licensed (0.18 CFS/64.2 AFY vs 0.26 CFS/66.6 AFY). This is a common issue when claims are filed online due to the website formatting. I made that correction also so the amended claim will match the originally issued license, with exception of the additional well added in 1998 (per well driller report).

Please review the claim form to ensure your agreement with the highlighted changes, then sign and return the form to our Northern Regional office at the address listed below. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns and I will be happy to help. Have a fantastic weekend.

Best Regards,

Evan
