Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wert,

Here is the Standard Form 5 (stipulation) for the elements of your water right, number 36-10725. Thank you for supplying the affidavit from Gene Glick. Based on his statements that the historical use of the property included 75 dairy cows, we have included the correct amount of stock in the proper element. This appears, according to your late objection, to settle the only concern you had with this subcase.

To resolve this water right, all you need to do is look the document over and make sure that the information is correct. If it is, sign it and send it back to the department. We'll make sure it gets to the court. If for some reason the information on the Standard Form 5 is incorrect, give me a call or write a letter and let me know what the problem is.

Sincerely,

Brent King

RE: A36-10725, A36-10729

Dear Mr & Mrs Wert:

I have completed data entry of the modified recommendations for the above referenced claims per the affidavits you submitted on 4/5/96. Further, I have discussed the situation with the staff attorney assigned to the case and he will be forwarding an SF-5, the court form stipulating to the water right information, for your review and signature within a few weeks.

After you left I found the cover letter from Dean Falk to you among the papers on my desk and am returning it to you (find it enclosed). If you are interested in obtaining a recorded right for your planned dairy development please get back in touch after obtaining updated herd information from Dean Falk. I spoke with the regional manager about the relation between the claim and a permit (if applied for) and he confirmed that the two combined could not exceed the 13,000 gallons per day domestic limitation. I believe that is what I communicated to you the other day, but wanted to follow up on it.

If you have any questions please give me a call or write a letter.

Sincerely,

Douglas Jones, P.E.

The Werts arranged to meet me to talk "about the papers".

They came in with a dairy water use work sheet prepared by Dean Falk and the partially completed application for permit we had worked on during the last meeting. The worksheet purported to support that the Werts could provide "domestic" water for 397 Jerseys and 430 heifers for an annual average of about 12,500 gallons per day. I pointed out that the spreadsheet showed that there were peak months where the average daily use exceeded 14,400 gallons per day and that the numbers would have to be adjusted to qualify under the domestic definition to process in the moratorium.

A discussion ensued wherein emotional and often angry accusations were made that we were stealing their water, that we change our story every time someone comes in, that if someone wanted to get anything done that they go to Boise, that they could pump whatever they wanted out of the hole because it was theirs. I tried to explain water appropriation, the limitations spelled out in statute, various ways dairies have legitimized their diversions.

Previously, the Werts have said that they wanted to have some sort of paper to document their usage. Initially they wanted to amend their claim to show 500 head with a 1912 priority date. I told them they could amend their claim to read however they wish, but that they would need to provide some evidence that the dairy that size existed in 1912. I told them they could file another claim to cover up to what they have at this time, but could not recommend what hadn't been developed yet. They could file an application which would be limited to a total of 13,000 gallons per day all uses combined, but would provide them 5 years to do it.

Lastly, they could file nothing and do whatever for up to 13,000 gpd legally.

After todays discussion I suggested that they get the numbers worked out thru Falk to show no more than 13,000 gpd monthly average and then decide what they want to do - file an application or exercise their statutory exemption.

The Werts also brought in two affidavits providing additional information about usage under A36-10725 & A36-10729. I explained the next step is to develop an SF-5 - a court form & process - to describe the rights correctly. I told them that I would forward the data to our attorneys and they could expect a response soon.

In closing, I expressed appreciation to them for obtaining the information and having the initiative to keep the process moving forward. I believe that I provided courteous responses during the difficult discussions while giving them accurate information. It was my impression that they left with a better attitude and with more knowledge and understanding.

Came in to amend claims to reflect present usage per granted motion to file late objection. After learning that he bought property in 1987 and there wasn't any dairy usage occurring during previous ownership, that he only began to build a herd beginning about in 1989, that there was probably only up to 50 head of milkers ever on the property I suggested that an amendment may not be the way to go. I informed him that if he could provide affidavits from knowledgeable people that describe what he wants to do then we could recommend it as his right. Much of what we talked about is what he wants to do on the property. We talked about the difference between the adjudication process and the appropriation process. I offered the possibility that he could amend his present claim to show up to a certain number of milking cows as of a recent date, but that the priority date would need to change to the more recent date. That didn't sound too good to them. We discussed what a water right is (i.e. elements of a right) and we talked about domestic rights (42-111 copy provided) and the domestic exception to the mandatory permit requirement (42-227, copy provided). In the end I assisted the Werts in partially completing an application to appropriate water for up to 250 milkers and 150 dry stock with commercial usage broken out. I discussed the Snake River Basin Moratorium and that we could process an application if it fit under the 42-111 definition (peak daily useage on hottest day of year).

They brought in a court order approving the late objection and wanted the records updated accordingly. I discussed the situation with them and then indicated that I would check with the legal staff in Boise concerning the legal steps now pending. I told them that I would contact them later. They left. I then called Boise and talked with Nick Spencer. He indicated that the late objection had been approved and that the next step would be for either wait for Master Dolan to set a court date or for the department to review the facts concerning the objection and then make a proposed recommendation for the claimant's consideration.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO FILE LATE OBJECTIONS

On August 15, 1995, claimants Rita and Loren Wert filed their Motion to File Late Objections in the above subcases. The Motion alleged that the claimants filled out their "adjudication papers" incorrectly by failing to claim historical uses, including the number and type of cattle.

A hearing was held on November 22, 1995, at the SRBA Courthouse in Twin Falls, Idaho. Loren Wert appeared in person, pro se. Brent R. King appeared in person on behalf of IDWR.

Based upon the pleadings and statements by the claimant, it is clear that good cause and a meritorious position have been shown for the late objections.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the Motion is granted. Objections lodged with the Motion are deemed filed as of the date of this Order. Responses to the objections shall be filed no later than January 31, 1996.

DATED: December 1, 1995.

RE: Adjudication
ID# A36-10725

Dear Sirs:

I have recently been made aware that I did not fill out my adjudication papers correctly. When I filled out these papers I put down the number of cows as 20, which is what I had at the time. The dairy is set up for 150 cows. I also noticed that the stock is listed as range cattle and it should be dairy. This was a dairy when I bought it and has continued to be a dairy.

Please advise me what I need to do to make the change in the number of cows and to make sure that this is listed as a dairy.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Loren Wert

phone call (.) walk-in (X)

He and his wife had copies of these three claims and wanted to amend them to show dairy use and increase the number of cattle from 20 or 30 range to 200-250 dairy cattle. I told them that since these were Basin 36 claims that I couldn't do anything to them at this point. They would have to go through the court to make any changes. I called over there and was told I could give them an Objection form and that they needed to include a cover letter asking the court to let them enter a late objection. They have also moved and may need to change their address. They decided to go over to the court for further clarification...
