Good morning,

The priority date is when the water from the well was first used for the home. I did review the well driller report from 1973 as evidence, but because the priority date was not filled out on the claim form, I cannot assume the priority date. I have rejected the claim, but if you return the completed Notice of Claim by February 3, 2021 I will review it.

To complete the claim, you must complete #2, date of priority. Then, you must resign and date the document on number 15.

The completed claim form will need to be mailed to my attention to the address listed below my signature line. If I do not receive the completed claim form by February 3, your claim will remain rejected. After that, you must file a new claim with fee.

In the letters I sent to you, I gave you my contact information and said to reach out to me if you have any questions. I am more than happy to answer your questions and help, so if you have any questions feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Christopher Holmes

Subject: water rights question

Mr. Holmes,

I received a notice in November about the water right claim for my home that I filed in May of 2019. It was missing the "date of priority" I unfortunately did not get it back to you in time by 12/9/20 and I just noticed that it has a deadline on it. What are my options now? I have not been able to find out what "date of priority" means. I have a copy of the well drillers report from 1973 attached to the original form that was submitted but that is not what is needed I assume. Not sure where to go from here.

Sincerely,

Sharon Cofre
