DURABLE GENERAL POWER OF ATTORNEY

I, Jeanette F. Talbott, hereby appoint the following persons as my true and lawful attorneys-in-fact, with authority to act on my behalf to all intents and purposes as fully as I might or could do if personally present: Linda Talbott Steigers, Erin Talbott, and Steven Talbott.

This Power of Attorney shall be exercisable at any time by any one or all of said attorneys-in-fact, acting singly or together, notwithstanding any future disability on my part, and shall not be affected by any incapacity or incompetence of me, the principal.

I authorize my attorneys-in-fact to execute any document and perform any act on my behalf as fully as I might or could do if personally present and fully competent. The powers conferred by this instrument include, without limitation, the power to obtain income tax records and sign income tax returns; to sign checks and withdraw funds from bank accounts and investment accounts; to sign medical releases and authorize medical treatment and/or the withholding or termination of medical treatment; to contract for nursing home admission, care, and related services; to purchase, sell, and encumber real and personal property; and to make gifts to any person or entity, including my attorneys-in-fact themselves.

Dated January 19, 2010.

Jeanette F. Talbott
