Dear Claimant:

Please find the enclosed copy of the Notice of Completed Administrative Proceeding, which the department has filed with the SRBA Court regarding three of the above referenced claims. You have received this notice pursuant to SRBA Court Administrative Order 11 requiring IDWR to report to the court and interested parties any pending changes to adjudication claims in basins for which a Director's Report has been filed with the court.

Enclosed you will also find computer print outs of the other four claims showing you as the current owners. These claims have not yet been reported to the SRBA Court in a Director's Report and as such do not require a Notice of Completed Administrative Proceeding. Please review these records for accuracy.

The notice of change of water right ownership form you filed with the department also listed claim A37-00095F as one of the claims needing to be changed into your names. Investigation of this claim indicated its place of use was not included in the legal description on the quitclaim deed conveying property and water rights from Ann Broadie to the two of you. The claim is also in the name of Charles Larkin. Consequently, ownership of this claim has not been changed.

Please contact this office if you have any questions about the notice or the administrative process.

Sincerely,

Trish Fawcett

RE: Water rights clarification

Dear Mr. Stanton:

When I was in your office this summer, we discussed getting the Broadie water rights straightened out. Therefore, enclosed please find the paper you gave to me to do this. The problem seems to be that when Moj purchased the ranch, Moj's name was added to the water rights, but Ann's name wasn't taken off all of the rights. At any rate, the rights should be in the name of Moj and/or Debbie Broadie.

I interpret the instructions (#8) to say that the filing fees are waived.

A copy of the Deed with the legal description is enclosed.

There is no division of water rights. They all came from Ann to Moj when we purchased the property.

If there is anything else you need to make this correction, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

Debbie Broadie
