Dear Mr. Slette;

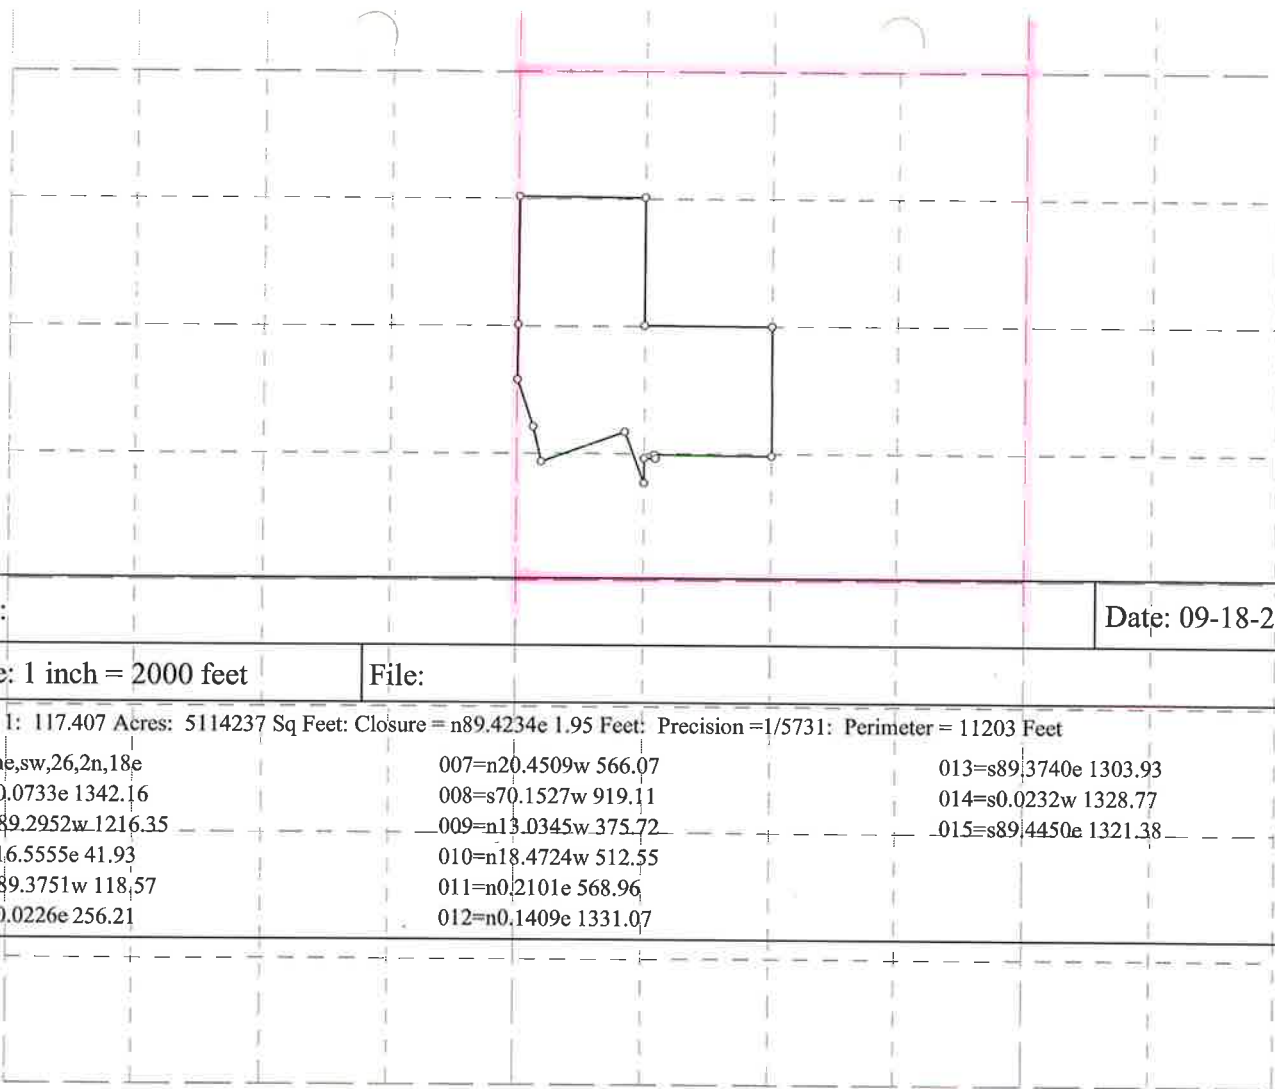

As we discussed, enclosed are amended claims in the name of Jann & Jane Wenner for the former Candida Forstmann property near Hailey. The amended claims reflect the historic water use on this land, and make address changes and correct errors on the existing claims. If these documents are satisfactory, they should be signed and returned to this office for processing. This will facilitate processing of the transfer application of Ms. Forstmann. We have beat this one up for a while and this is where we landed. The point of diversion would be identified at the location of Headgate # 35 with Doug's GEN remark.

Thanks for drafting those alternatives, I was originally thinking along the same sort of lines. Seeing them, however, makes me think brevity would be better. How about: "Rights Nos. 37-537B and 37-538B are conveyed through the Broadford Slough and Rockwell Bypass channels to the point of diversion described above." I think GENERAL is appropriate.

I also think that Carter should be consulted for language and placement.

Feel free to pose any or all of the alternatives to him.

Following is two possibilities for the description of the diverting works. What do you think? I assume that the remark would be categorized as 'general'

This right is measured and diverted at the Big Wood Canal Co headgate 35. Water from the Big Wood River flows into the Broadford Slough, then into the Rockwell Bypass, on which headgate 35 is located.

Water delivered for this right flows from the Big Wood River into the Broadford Slough and then through the Rockwell bypass to the Big Wood Canal Co headgate 35 where the watermaster measures and delivers this right.

All,

I'm getting a bit lost in what the legal description of the POD ought to be. Assuming you can identify that, we'll need a remark to be drafted regarding the slough (does anyone have similar language that can be used?). The next question that needs to be solved is whether we need an amended claim to get the correct legal description of the POD or if we can SF5.

Please let me know what you think.

Thanks,

Chris

It is Allen's and my conclusion that A) Broadford Slough is a channel of the Big Wood River so no POD at the head of the slough B) The Rockwell Bypass is a "saved water" conveyance as defined in the Rockwell Decree C) The only point of diversion should be from the Rockwell Bypass without a point at the head of the bypass. The right should have remarks that the water is routed from the slough and into the bypass and the measurement made at the diversion.

The requested point of diversion appears to be the start of the Broadford Slough. Lee Peterson's GPSed location for the Rockwell bypass is Sec 22 SENESW.

The point of redirection identified as head gate #35 was claimed at Sec 27 SENENE. Lee's GPSed location agrees with this legal description.

Transfer 4799 split the original rights and is associated with a 1 acre horse arena. The unchanged portion of the transfer represents the POU as claimed through 37-537B etal. The transfer did not identify a point of diversion, rather used existing records that were incorrect. No help in the transfer.

Doug, it appears that 37-882 is diverted just upstream from the Rockwell bypass diversion and then again from the Rockwell bypass (Lee's Nick 34) about a quarter mile north of the head gate # 35 diversion. Suggesting that we would recognize head gate # 35 for this right.

We did not recommend the Head of the Broadford slough as a point of diversion for any rights and it does not appear that we recognized any points of diversion associated with the beginning of the Rockwell bypass either. That would leave the recognized point of diversion as Head gate 35, with no redirection points.

What would your take be???

Kelly,

Would you please take a look at this and let me know your thoughts on settlement. I see that we recommended the right as claimed. One of the PODs, per the attached map, was clearly claimed incorrectly--possibly need to have an amended claim and ADR as opposed to SF5. I see that there was a transfer but can't seem to get the transfer (No. 4799) to come up. Maybe the transfer would shed some light?

Chris,

I just received notice of the initial hearing for these subcases and would like to discuss settlement. Our objection is to merely correct the recommended point of diversion and redirection - see attached map and copy of one of the objections. You can confirm this delivery with the watermaster and we should be able to go to SF5's pretty quickly!! Let me know.

Shelley,

I represent Big Wood Ranch LLC who has acquired these water rights (and 37-7312D) from Jan and Jane Wenner. A notice of change in water right ownership has been filed. These three rights are appurtenant to the same place of use. However, the irrigated acres for 37-7312C are 28.2 while the other two are 28. The first one was determined by a licensing field exam and should be more accurate. Can we change the other two so the irrigated acres are all the same??

Thanks again for all your help in these matters.

Dear Doug:

Enclosed are several Amended Notice of Claim to a Water Right submitted on behalf of Jane & Jann Wenner.

There appears to have been an error in the original field exam describing the tracts in which the irrigation was occurring. This error was overlooked, and improper irrigated area calculations were utilized during processing of Transfer #'s 4794 & 4799. Hopefully the enclosed amended claims will help clarify the actual historical usage of the water rights as they should be recommended to the Director for basin 37.
