In reference to claim # A37-02386 I object to the transfer and claim filed by Joyce Pearson. My reasons are because the water was traditionally used on my ground and neither of the previous owners have any knowledge of losing it. I have therefore filed my own claim to regain it as we currently are using it and can show beneficial use.

Dear Ms Pearson:

The Department recently attempted to send correspondence relating to the above referenced claims to PO Box 449, Bellevue. The letter was returned as not deliverable. The property described in the claims is located in Section 13 T1S R18E, I have enclosed computer records of the claims for your reference. If you are still the owner of these claims please complete the enclosed change-of-address form and return it at your earliest opportunity so that we may update our records. If you are no longer the owner of this property I would appreciate it if you would let me know (by letter or phone) so that contact can be made with the correct individual(s). Failure to keep the Department updated as to address and/or owner could result in failure to receive and respond to important communications and potentially jeopardize the validity of the rights.

If you have any questions please contact us.

RE: Edith Fredrickson Complaint

Dear Lee:

As you know last Wednesday, July 19th, at your request Jim Stanton and I accompanied you to the site of the water diversions on the "Smith Property" in Section 13, Twp.01S, Rge.18E, B.M., Blaine County. We first met with Geoffrey Smith and later with Edith Fredrickson to determine the basis of Edith's complaint about a water diversion which potentially interferes with her water diversion.

As you know Edith pointed out the location of a culvert which when plugged directs seep water into a transfer ditch and does not allow the direct flow of the seep water into the natural seep stream which she diverts downstream. We also observed that the transfer ditch discharges the water back into the natural seep stream at a few points above and near Edith's diversion. We observed the transfer ditch flows in a straight line toward the Pearson artesian well in the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 13 and is aligned with the ditch from the well but the ditch appears to be dammed at this point and any overflow is directed to the northeast to another natural seep stream. We also observed that the complained about diversion works does not have adequate control works or measuring device and also that Edith's diversion does not have adequate control works or measuring device.

Since returning from the site I was able to research the water rights records and review the SRBA claims filed in the area. I have found that the complained about diversion appears to be associated with old license 37-02386 for use of an "unnamed stream". This license is the root right for SRBA claims A37-02386 and A37-02386A. Please find enclosed proof reports for all of these records as well as a copy of the license 37-02386 and portions of the "Engineer's Report" for licensing of this right. Please note that SRBA claims A37-02386 and A37-02386A conflict with each other and will ultimately be resolved in the SRBA process which will take some time to complete.

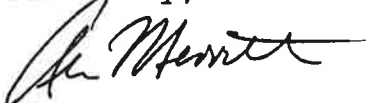

For now I suggest that before you spend time regulating these waters that the users (Fredrickson, Smith, Pearson, ?) construct adequate control works and measuring devices.

I hope that this review has helped in resolving this matter. Please feel free to contact our office if you have further questions.
