Subject: beekwilder

A few observations,

According to Blaine Co., via Arcview, the Beekwilders own 0.95 ac of the 3 ac claimed. The entirety of Block 95 is 2.1 acres and is not split into a lot of little lots. It is east of the Railroad and has about 4 lots. I do not know what the Vault file indicates as place of use and why it is three acres unless the streets or railroad right of way come into play. The basis of claim is license, but the rate of flow is more than licensed and represents capacity - this would make it a beneficial use claim with the priority date the date of completion of works or field exam date if more water can be justified (generally can be up there). Was there mention of decreed rights in the application, proofs or exam? I would think that we could recommend 0.02 cfs for Beekwilder's place under the present claim, or 0.03 cfs for a beneficial use claim.

Our claim file has a note in it (microfilmed) indicating some other folks could have an interest in this right we should not accept the whole thing into the water bank under Beekwilder's name. I am going to have the owner change from 2003 corrected and split the right from Jeppesen to Jeppesen and Beekwilder Trust proportionately. However this will not reflect what we would recommend - that would be less unless they replace the claim with a beneficial use-based claim.

Take a look at the note in the microfilmed claim and the Arcview with 1992 DOQQ X74se with Blaine Co tax lot if you haven't already.

RE: Change of ownership

DATE 8-17-92

NAME OF PARTY

MICHAEL BREEN

(EARTH CARE LANDSCAPING)

He called looking for a water right filing under his name and others (BREEN, JEPPESEN, KARBUN, BABER) Nothing was found except under Jeppesen - A37-02530.

I suggested he file some form of the change of ownership to keep our records current.

There is some question of who owns what since the property is being sold off in pieces.

Breen owns the House and some acres, Jeppesen still owns the barn & well location. Breen says he is entitled to $\frac{2}{3}$ the well for his uses.

Sounds like they are trying to clarify this situation.
