AGREEMENT

This AGREEMENT concerns the utilization and maintenance of a water well located in Country Meadows, a residential development lying on the south side of highway 200 approximately 4 miles east of Clark Fork, Idaho (Section 20, Township 56 North, Range 3 East, Boise Meridian). The same well supplies water for residential purposes to the properties of those people named below. The purpose of this document is to articulate a reasonable and practical method by which to pay for the expenses related to the operation and upkeep of that well. The parties who have signed below agree to abide by the terms articulated herein.

First, it is agreed that an Administrator will be chosen by the parties to manage the regular financial obligations of operating the well, including the payment of monthly bills, and to make reasonable decisions, when necessary, regarding the repair or other maintenance issues concerning the well. The Administrator shall continue in that capacity until he or she resigns by notifying all the other parties in writing or is replaced by a majority vote of the parties.

Second, the Administrator is empowered to retain any excess or over payment, made for any reason by any party to this AGREEMENT, for the purpose of building and maintaining an emergency fund for extraordinary or unusual expenses. All such retained funds shall be credited to the paying party's account. The emergency fund shall continue to accumulate until it has reached Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), with each party having contributed an equal portion. At that point, the Administrator shall cease to retain additional emergency funds until such time as the reserve is depleted below the $500.00 level. The emergency reserve fund may exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) if it is necessary to bring the parties' contribution levels into equal balance.

Third, maintenance or repair expenditures exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) shall be considered extraordinary and be presented to all the parties who have signed this AGREEMENT for approval prior to contract or payment. In the case of disagreement among the parties regarding an extraordinary expenditure, the vote of a simple majority shall determine the manner in which the Administrator is to proceed.

Fourth, the Administrator shall provide a statement of each party's account, as well as an update of any outstanding or anticipated financial matters that might affect the well, to the parties no less frequently than every six months.

Fifth, each property affected by this AGREEMENT shall have one (1) vote only on matters arising from or related to the well. Nevertheless, for purposes of clarity, both parties to a marriage or cohabitation must sign this AGREEMENT for it to be effective or enforceable on their behalf.

Sixth, any or all of the parties to this AGREEMENT may withdraw from it at any time by delivering written notice to the Administrator. The Administrator will then notify all the others of the withdrawal, by any reasonable method, and reconcile the withdrawing party's account. The Administrator shall close out the withdrawing party's account by retaining or refunding whatever funds are required to fulfill the obligations and intent of this AGREEMENT. Unless extraordinary circumstances require more time, the Administrator shall complete this process within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the withdrawal notice.

Seventh, when each party signs this document, he or she shall indicate a choice for the Administrator. If a simple majority of votes accumulate for one person, and that person is willing to serve, he or she shall undertake the Administrator's duties immediately.

Eighth, the parties agree that the Administrator is to be reimbursed for expenses incurred in fulfilling the duties of that office. If, at any time, a majority of the signatory parties hereto determine that the Administrator's duties warrant remuneration, they may determine an amount and method of payment for those services.

Ninth, this Agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, successors and assigns of the parties who have signed below.

The Legal Descriptions for the properties subject to this agreement are those descriptions contained in the following Deeds recorded in the records of Bonner County, Idaho:
