THE CARVER LAKE PROPERTY TRUST

This TRUST AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made at Spokane, Washington, on the 2nd day of June, 2021, between KEITH E. CARVER and SKYE K. CARVER, husband and wife, (collectively "Trustors") and KEITH E. CARVER and SKYE K. CARVER (collectively "Trustees" or individually as "Trustee"). The name of this Trust shall be the "Bigwood Trust".

ARTICLE 1. THE TRUST ESTATE

Trustees acknowledge receipt in trust from Trustors the community property of Trustors described in Schedule "A". This property, together with any other community property subsequently transferred to and accepted by the Trustees, for the purposes of this trust, shall constitute the "Trust Estate" and shall be administered by the Trustees as provided in this Agreement. All community property transferred to Trustees shall retain its character as community property during the Trustors' lifetimes. Upon the initial transfer of such property to Trustees and creation of this trust, such property shall be held and administered by Trustees as part of the revocable trust in accordance with Article 3 and other applicable provisions of this instrument.

ARTICLE 2. REVOCATION; WITHDRAWAL OF PROPERTY; MODIFICATION

2.1 While Both Trustors Are Living. While both Trustors are living they shall have the right acting jointly, and only if they act jointly as neither may act unilaterally,

- (a) to revoke this instrument in its entirety,
- (b) to partially revoke or modify this instrument,
- (c) to withdraw from the operation of the trust any part of the property of the Trust Estate, and
- (d) to transfer to Trustees additional property acceptable to Trustees for administration as a part of the Trust Estate.

2.2 After Death of One Trustor. Upon the death of a Trustor, the Trust for Surviving Spouse, Article 5, including that portion, if any, of the Trust Estate the rights to which the surviving Trustor has disclaimed pursuant to Section 4.1, shall become irrevocable.

2.3 Effectiveness. Any revocation, withdrawal or property, or modification exercisable by one or both of Trustors shall be valid and fully effective whenever Trustees shall receive from either or both Trustors exercising such right written notice thereof. In the case of revocation or withdrawal of property, Trustees shall have a reasonable time to transfer or deliver the property.

ARTICLE 3. BENEFICIARIES; PURPOSES; DISTRIBUTIONS DURING TRUSTORS' LIFETIMES

3.1 Beneficiaries; Purposes. Trustors shall be the primary beneficiaries of the Trust Estate while both of them are living and the primary trust purposes shall be to provide for their health, support, and maintenance in their accustomed manner of living.

3.2 Distributions While Both Trustors are Living. As long as both Trustors are living, Trustees shall make such distributions of income and principal to Trustors, or to another or others, as either or both Trustors shall direct.

ARTICLE 4. ALLOCATION UPON DEATH OF EITHER TRUSTOR; ESTATE TAXES; EXPENSES

4.1 Allocation. Upon the death of either Trustor, Trustees shall allocate all of the property in the Trust Estate (both that portion attributable to the deceased Trustor and that portion attributable to the surviving Trustor) to the Trust for the Surviving Spouse, Article 5; provided, the surviving Trustor may disclaim

--- all of the rights described in Section 2.1; and

--- the right to direct distributions of income and principal as provided in Section 5.3.

with respect to all or a portion of the Trust Estate attributable to the deceased Trustor. If the surviving Trustor makes such a disclaimer, the portion of the Trust Estate to which the disclaimer is made shall be allocated by Trustee to a separate share of the Trust for the Surviving Spouse, Article 5. If such an allocation is made, Trustee shall maintain the separate identity of the property of each share which may be held in undivided interests and need not be physically segregated. Separate records shall be maintained for each share.

4.2 Estate Taxes; Expenses. Upon the death of the first Trustor, Trustee may, in Trustee's discretion, pay or otherwise provide for, from the principal of the Trust Estate

(a) such portion of the estate, inheritance and other taxes imposed by reason of the deceased Trustor's death, including interest and penalties on those taxes ("estate taxes"), and

(b) such portion of debts, expenses of last illness, funeral and burial, and expenses of administration (including attorneys' fees and personal representative's fees) owing at or by reason of the deceased Trustor's death

as Trustee determines advisable after consultation with the personal representative, if any, of the deceased Trustor's probate estate.

ARTICLE 5. TRUST FOR SURVIVING TRUSTOR

5.1 The Trust Estate. The Trust Estate shall consist of the property allocated for administration under this Article 5 and the proceeds, investments and reinvestments of that property.

5.2 Beneficiaries: Purposes. The surviving Trustor shall be the primary beneficiary of the Trust Estate and the trust purposes shall be to provide for his or her health, support and maintenance in his or her accustomed manner of living.

5.3. Distributions. Trustee shall make such distributions of income and principal to the surviving Trustor, or to another or others, as the surviving Trustor shall direct.

5.4 Taxes and Expenses in Surviving Trustor's Estate. After the death of the surviving Trustor, Trustee may, in Trustee's discretion, pay or otherwise provide for, from the principal of the Trust Estate

(a) such portion of the estate taxes imposed reason of that Trustor's death ("estate taxes"), and

(b) such portion of that Trustor's debts, expenses of last illness, funeral and burial, and expenses of administration (including attorneys' fees and personal representative's fees)

as Trustee determines advisable after consultation with the personal representative, if any, of the deceased Trustor's probate estate.

5.5 Termination. Upon the death of the surviving Trustor, this Trust for the Surviving Trustor shall terminate and all property remaining after payment of the amounts described in Article 5.4 shall be distributed to Trustee for administration as part of the final disposition of the Trust Estate, Article 6.

ARTICLE 6. FINAL DISPOSITION OF TRUST ESTATE

6.1 Remaining Trust Estate. Upon the death of the surviving Trustor, the remaining Trust Estate shall be disposed of under the provisions of this Article 6, at the times set forth herein for disposition, and shall continue in Trust for the remaining lives of Trustors' three (3) children, (1) KANNON CARVER, born April 23, 2000; (2) KOBIN CARVER, born May 22, 2002 and (3) KALVIN CARVER, born February 22, 2005. As each of Kannon Carver, Kobin Carver and Calvin Carver reach the age of majority, they shall be (co-)trustees of such trust for Trustors' children. In the event that any of them are unable and/or unwilling to serve, then the remaining of them shall serve as co-trustees or sole trustee.

6.1.1 Beneficiaries of Trust. The surviving children of Trustors, or their issue should any of the surviving children predecease both Trustors, shall be the primary beneficiaries of the Trust. The spouses of such surviving children shall have no rights to the assets of this Trust.

6.1.1.1 Administration of Trust Estate. Trustee shall have sole responsibility for paying the taxes and upkeep of the Trust property with contributions, in necessary, made by the beneficiaries to make such payments. It is the intent that the surviving children of Trustors and their families shall have the right to use the property. Further, the Trust property shall be administered and governed in accordance to an addendum attached to this Trust, which may be amended from time-to-time by the Trustors (during their lifetime) or by the Trustees.

6.1.1.2 Termination of Trust for Trustors' Children. Upon the death of all of Trustors' children, the trust shall be terminated and distributed outright and free of trust to the issue of Trustors' children in equal shares, per capita and not per stirpes. It is Trustors' intent that the Trust Estate be distributed equally amongst their children's issue, not in one-third (1/3) shares based upon the number of Trustors' children. Should any of the issue of Trustors' children be under the age of twenty-five (25) on the date of the last of Trustors' children death, then such issue's(s') share shall continue in trust in accordance with Section 6.1.2.

6.1.2 Share for Living Issue of a Deceased Child. If any living issue of a deceased child of Trustors is under the age of twenty-five (25) years when Trustee is directed to distribute property to him/her, such property shall be held in trust or continued in trust by my Trustee until such child reaches said age, when it shall be distributed to him/her free of trust. In the meantime, my Trustee shall use so much of the income and principal for his health, support, maintenance, and education as my Trustee determines to be reasonable for those purposes, adding to principal any income not so used. In case of any such issue's death prior to reaching the age of twenty-five (25) years, any part then so held by Trustee shall be distributed in this Trust for the benefit of Trustors' then surviving issue and if no surviving issue then pursuant to Section 6.2.

6.2 Failure of Beneficiaries. If at any time there should be a complete failure of beneficiaries, Trustee shall distribute outright the residuary trust estates, as then constituted, to Trustors' then living heirs-at-law, such heirs-at-law and the shares of each to be determined under the laws of the State of Washington relating to the intestate distribution of personal property.

ARTICLE 7. TRUSTEE SUCCESSION

7.1 Successor Trustee. If, during the lifetime of the Trustors, one Trustor is unable or unwilling to serve or continue to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then the remaining Trustor shall serve as successor Trustee of this trust. Should, during the lifetimes of the Trustors, both Trustors be unable or unwilling to serve or continue to serve as Trustee for any reason, then Kannon Carver, Kobin Carver and Calvin Carver, so long as they have reached the age of majority, shall be co-trustees. In the event that any of them are unable and/or unwilling to serve, then the remaining of them shall serve as co-trustees or sole trustee.

7.2 Power to Appoint a Corporate Co-Trustee. The individual trustee(s) may, at any time, appoint a corporate co-trustee to serve under any trust established hereunder. This power to appoint shall also include the power to remove such corporate trustee at any time, with or without cause, and if desired the individual trustee(s) shall also have the power to appoint a replacement corporate trustee.

7.3 Trustee Bond. No Trustee acting hereunder shall be required to post any bond or other security for the faithful performance of any duties and obligations in such office.

7.4 Trustee Compensation. A Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation commensurate with the services actually performed and to reimbursement for expenses properly incurred. A Trustee may waive the right to be compensated. If payment is to be made, the amount shall be determined by reference to fees charged by corporate trustees in the locale of the trust.

ARTICLE 8. GENERAL TRUST PROVISIONS

8.1 Spendthrift Restrictions. No principal or income payable to or to become payable under any trust created by this instrument shall be subject to anticipation or assignment by a beneficiary or to attachment by or to the interference of any creditor of any such beneficiary, or be taken or reached by any legal or equitable process in satisfaction of any such debt or liability of such beneficiary prior to its actual receipt by the beneficiary. The foregoing shall not in any way limit the right of any beneficiary to disclaim any interest in the trust.

8.2 Protection From Creditors. No share or interest of a beneficiary in this trust shall vest in the beneficiary until actually paid or delivered to him or her. Therefore, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this trust, if by reason of a bankruptcy, judgment, or any other cause, any income or principal would be enjoyed by a person other than the beneficiary, such principal or income shall not be distributed to the beneficiary but shall be retained by the Trustee during the life of the beneficiary or any shorter period or periods determined by the Trustee to be in the beneficiary's best interest.

8.3 Consideration of Other Resources. In exercising discretion granted in making payments for health, education, support and maintenance, the Trustee may take into consideration the liquid resources available to the beneficiary, if any, including public assistance benefits available to a disabled beneficiary. The Trustee may request and rely upon a signed statement from such beneficiary, and may, in the exercise of absolute discretion, suspend benefits hereunder during any period in which a statement is not furnished.

8.4 Governing Law. The administration of any trusts created hereunder shall be governed, insofar as Trustors can provide, by the laws of the State of Washington.

ARTICLE 9. TRUSTEE POWERS

9.1 General Powers. In addition to and not in limitation of the powers set forth in this Agreement, Trustee shall have all duties, powers, and rights imposed and granted by law, including those set forth in the Washington Trust Act (RCW Title 11), which Act is incorporated herein by this reference.

9.2 Allocation Between Principal and Income. In determining what is principal or income, the Trustee shall follow the provisions of the Washington Principal and Income Act, or any successor Act in effect in the State of Washington.

9.3 Trustee Accounting. The requirements of the Uniform Trustees' Accounting Act, or any similar provision of applicable law requiring periodic accounting to the trust beneficiaries, are waived to the extent permitted by law, specifically as provided in RCW §11.97.010. Upon the written request of any trust beneficiary, the Trustee shall furnish such beneficiary an annual report of trust income, expenses and distributions, and a list of trust assets and liabilities.

9.4 Liability for Loss. The Trustee shall not be liable for loss caused by or resulting from an error of judgment with respect to any action taken or omitted requiring the exercise of discretion in good faith, nor shall the Trustee be liable for loss caused by or resulting from any other act or omission in the absence of bad faith.

9.5 Termination of Trust. If the principal of any trust created hereunder is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) and if the Trustee determines that the continuance of the trust would be uneconomical or impracticable, the Trustee may terminate the trust.

9.6 Retention of Assets. The Trustee shall have authority to retain so long as the Trustee determines advisable, without any liability for so doing, any property, real, personal, or mixed, of whatever kind and wheresoever situated, which is received by the trustee hereunder from any source (other than through investment of the trust estate), regardless of whether the property so retained is of a kind and quality which the Trustee would ordinarily purchase for trust accounts and regardless of whether such property constitutes a larger portion of the trust estate than the Trustee would ordinarily deem advisable.

9.7 Advisors to the Trustee. The Trustee may do any of the following: (1) hire persons, including accountants, attorneys, auditors, investment advisers, or other agents, even if they are associated or affiliated with the Trustee, to advise or assist the Trustee in the performance of administrative duties; (2) appoint an investment manager or managers to manage all or any part of the assets of the trust, and to delegate to said manager investment discretion, including the power to acquire and dispose of such assets; and (3) charge the compensation of such attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, investment managers, specialists, and other agents and any other expenses against the trust.

9.8 Compromise Claims. The Trustee shall have the power to compromise, submit to arbitration, abandon, or otherwise adjust any claim or litigation against or in favor of the trust.

9.9 Authority of Co-Trustees. All authority to or vested in the Trustee by any provision of this Trust is to be exercised in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee. Where two (2) Co-Trustees are serving as the Trustee, the decision of the Co-Trustees must be unanimous to take action on behalf of the Trust. Where more than two (2) Co-Trustees are serving as Trustee, the decision of a majority of such Co-Trustees shall constitute the action of the Trust and shall be binding upon the Trust, the beneficiaries of the Trust and all persons transacting any matter with the Trust. The Trustees can appoint a Managing Trustee to administer the day-to-day affairs of the Trust. Where two (2) or more Co-Trustees are serving as the Trustee hereunder, the signature of any one such Co-Trustee shall be sufficient to implement any action of the Trustee taken pursuant to this Article 9, or to perform and/or implement any other duty of the Trustee under this Trust.

9.10 Authority to Sell Property. Should all the Trustees agree, then, a Trust beneficiary may purchase the Trust assets at their appraised value, less a reasonable amount of selling costs. The terms of such purchase shall be agreed to by all the Trustees.

ARTICLE 10. SUMMARY OF TRUST

Any transfer agent or other party involved in the transfer of assets to the trust, the sale to or the purchase of assets from the trust, the mortgage or lease of trust property, or any other transaction involving the trust, may request and rely upon a summary of this Agreement furnished by the Trustee or the attorney for the Trustee confirming the trust's existence, the Trustee's appointment, and the Trustee's authority to act on behalf of the Trust. If so requested by any such third-party, the Trustee shall also provide copies of the pertinent pages of the trust, including the first page, the page showing the Trustee's appointment and powers, and the signature page.

EXECUTED by Trustors and by Trustee on the day and year first above written.
