(2) By accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, Beneficiaries do not waive the right either to require payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure so to pay.

(3) From time to time, without liability therefor and without notice, upon written request of Beneficiaries and presentation of this deed of trust and such note for endorsement, and without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, Trustee may reconvey any part of said property; consent to the making of any map thereof; join in granting any easement thereon; or join in any agreement extending or subordinating the lien or charge hereof.

(4) Upon written request of Beneficiaries stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender of this deed of trust and said note to Trustee for cancellation and retention and upon payment of its fees, Trustee shall reconvey without warranty, the property then held hereunder. The recitals in such reconveyance of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. The grantee in such reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto".

(5) As additional security, Grantors hereby give and confer upon Beneficiaries the right, power and authority, during the term of this Deed of Trust, to collect the rents, issues and profits of said property, reserving unto Grantors the right, prior to any default by Grantors in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such rents, issues and profits as they become due and payable. Upon any such default, Beneficiaries or Beneficiaries' designated agent, may at any time without notice, and without regard to adequacy of any security for the indebtedness secured hereby, enter upon and take possession of said property, or any part thereof, in his own name sue for or otherwise collect such rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as Beneficiaries may determine. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of rents, issues and profits and the application thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any action done pursuant to such notice.

(6) Unless otherwise provided by the Promissory Note or other instrument creating any other indebtedness secured hereby, upon default by Grantors in payment of the Promissory Note or other indebtedness secured hereby, or in performance of any obligation hereunder, Beneficiaries may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable. Failure to elect such option by Beneficiaries shall not be deemed or constitute a waiver of any default or right or remedy of Beneficiaries. In the event of such default, Beneficiaries shall execute or cause the Trustee to execute a written notice of such default and of his election to cause to be sold the property to satisfy the obligations hereof, and shall cause such notice to be recorded in the office of the recorder of each county wherein said real property or some part thereof is situated. All remedies of Beneficiaries under this Deed of Trust and as may otherwise be provided by law in the event of default by Grantors shall be cumulative and non-exclusive.

Notice of sale having been given as then required by law, and not less than the time then required by law having elapsed, Trustee, without demand on Grantors, shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by it in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels and in such order as it may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold but without any covenant or warranty express or implied. The recitals in such deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including Grantors, Trustee, or Beneficiaries, may purchase at such a sale.

After deducting all costs, fees and expenses of Trustee and of this Trust, including cost of evidence of title and reasonable counsel fees in connection with sale, Trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of all sums expended under the terms hereof, not then repaid, with accrued interest at the highest lawful rate permissible under Idaho law; all other sums then secured hereby; and the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto. Beneficiaries expressly reserve the right to seek a deficiency judgment to the extent permitted by law.

(7) This Deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their legal representatives and successors in interest. The term Beneficiaries shall include any future owner and holder, including assignees of the note secured hereby. In this Deed, whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular includes the plural, including but not limited to any reference to Grantors or Beneficiaries.

(8) Trustee accepts this Trust when this Deed, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party here to of pending sale under any other Deed of Trust or of any action or proceeding in which Grantors, Beneficiaries or Trustee shall be a party unless brought by Trustee or unless requested as provided by law. Request is hereby made that a copy of any Notice of Default and a copy of any Notice of Sale hereunder be mailed to Grantors at their address shown above.

(9) The Trusts created hereby are irrevocable by Grantors.

(10) In the event of dissolution or resignation of the Trustee, the Beneficiaries may substitute a trustee or trustees to execute the trust hereby created, and when any such substitution has been filed for record in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the property herein described is situated, it shall be conclusive evidence of the appointment of such trustee or trustees, and such new trustee or trustees shall succeed to all of the powers and duties of the trustee or trustees named herein.

(11) In the event Grantors' default under this Deed of Trust, Grantors shall pay and reimburse Trustee and Beneficiaries for all costs and expenses incurred by Trustee and Beneficiaries by reason of said default, including but not limited to costs of any non-judicial or judicial foreclosure proceedings, attorney fees, court costs, fees for publication or service of any notice or legal process, title insurance fees, and document preparation and recording fees.

(12) This Deed of Trust is made and shall be construed under the laws of the State of Idaho.

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right(s) to you. The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at (208)287-4911.

Sincerely,

Sidney Palmer
