R. CHRISTOPHER ROOT 2002 TRUST
AS AMENDED AND RESTATED ON SEPT. 12, 2019

This is an Amendment and Restatement of the R. Christopher Root 2002 Trust dated August 22, 2002, as previously amended on August 27, 2003 and August 22, 2007 (the "Trust"), by Robert Christopher Root, as Grantor and as Trustee (referred to in this amendment, including any successor Trustee or Co-Trustee, as the "Trustee"). This Amended and Restated Trust supersedes and amends the Trust in its entirety. I confirm all prior transfers of assets to the Trustee, who will continue to hold them as set forth in this Amended and Restated Trust. This amendment is dated and will be effective as of SEPT. 12, 2019.

In accordance with the right of amendment I reserved in Paragraph 29 of the Trust, I hereby amend the Trust as follows:

ARTICLE 1
FAMILY

I am married to Tracy Root, who is referred to as "my wife" in this Trust. My wife and I are both citizens of the United States. My wife and I have one child, Robert Wyatt Root. I have three children from a prior marriage, Ian Christopher Root, Vanessa Remy Root, and Mathieu Chapman Root. References to "my children" mean my children named above; references to "my descendants" mean my children and their descendants.

ARTICLE 2
ORIGINAL TRUST ESTATE

The trust estate consists of all assets held in the Trust by the Trustee as of this date, which together with any assets later added to this Trust are referred to as the "Trust Estate." Any person may transfer assets to the Trust Estate, if the Trustee agrees to accept them. Unless otherwise specified in writing at the time of the transfer, those assets will be held as provided in this Trust. The Trustee accepts the responsibility of the Trustee, acknowledges receipt of the current Trust assets, and agrees to hold the Trust Estate as set forth in this Trust.

ARTICLE 3
RESERVED RIGHTS

I reserve the following personal rights with respect to the Trust during my lifetime:

- To amend or revoke this Trust;
- To remove a Trustee and to designate a new Trustee;
- To withdraw assets, whether income or principal, from the Trust Estate;
- To require changes in the investments of the Trust Estate, but investments made by me are not subject to review by the Trustee unless my personal rights are suspended under Section 3.2;

ARTICLE 5 DISTRIBUTIONS AFTER MY DEATH

Upon my death and after making provision for the payments under Article 19, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining Trust Estate as follows:

5.1 Gifts Under Will. If my Will makes a gift of a specific asset that is held in this Trust when I die, and if this Trust does not make a specific gift of that asset, the Trustee shall distribute that asset to the beneficiary named in my Will. If my Will gives my residuary probate estate to this Trust, and if my probate estate is insufficient to satisfy any other preresiduary gift under my Will, the Trustee shall satisfy the balance of that gift from the Trust.

5.2 Residuary Trust Estate. If my wife survives me, the Trustee shall retain the Residuary Trust Estate as a separate trust, for administration under the terms specified in Article 6. If my wife does not survive me, the Trustee shall divide the Residuary Trust Estate into separate shares for my descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold each beneficiary's share as a separate trust under Article 7. If my wife and my descendants all fail to survive me, the Trustee shall distribute the Residuary Trust Estate as provided in Article 10.

5.3 Exercises of Powers of Appointment. My Will provides for the following exercises of powers of appointment:

- (i) I exercise the power of appointment given to me by Section 2(c) under the 1992 Root Children's Business Trust dated July 16, 1992 in favor of my descendants, per stirpes, and direct that all assets subject to that power of appointment be distributed to the then serving trustee of the trust created for such descendant under Article 7 of the R. Christopher Root 2002 Trust dated August 22, 2002, as it now exists or may be amended after the execution of this Will (my "Revocable Trust"), for administration under its terms, as soon after my death as possible;
- (ii) I exercise the power of appointment given to me by Section 4(c) under the Susan Root Feibleman 1999 Communications Trust dated May 24, 1999 and direct that all assets subject to that power of appointment be distributed to the then serving trustee of the Marital Trust created under Article 6 of my Revocable Trust, for administration under its terms, as soon after my death as possible; and
- (iii) I exercise the power of appointment given to me by Section 10(b) under the Susan Root Feibleman Revocable Trust dated February 15, 1978 and direct that all assets subject to that power of appointment be distributed as follows: (i) the lesser of all of the assets subject to that power of appointment or Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000) to the then serving trustee of the Robert Wyatt Root Trust created under Article 8 of my Revocable Trust; and (ii) the balance, if any, to the then serving trustee of the Marital Trust created under Article 6 of my Revocable Trust, for administration under its terms, as soon after my death as possible.

As a result of exercising these powers of appointment, assets from those trusts will be governed by the terms of Article 6, Article 7, and/or Article 8. For purposes of determining the applicable rule against perpetuities, and for considerations regarding federal transfer taxes, assets from each of the above trusts shall be held in separate trusts under the terms of such Articles.

ARTICLE 6

ADMINISTRATION OF MARITAL TRUST

The Trustee shall hold, administer, and distribute any trust held under this Article 6 as follows:

6.1 Distribution of Income. The Trustee shall pay to my wife or apply for her benefit, all income of the trust at least quarterly during her lifetime. Any accrued income at her death is to be paid to the succeeding beneficiaries.

6.2 Distribution of Principal. The Trustee may pay to my wife or apply for her benefit any principal that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for my wife's health, education, support, and maintenance, or as any Independent Trustee in its discretion determines to be in my wife's best interests. The Trustee shall give primary concern to the interests of my wife rather than for the preservation of principal for ultimate distribution to the remainder beneficiaries of the Trust.

6.3 Use of Residence. If any residence formerly owned by me is held in a trust administered under this Article 6, my wife will have the exclusive use and benefit of that residence during her lifetime, or until the Trustee determines that the residence is no longer needed for such purposes. No rent or other costs are to be charged to my wife, and the Trustee shall pay all expenses for maintaining the residence, including mortgage payments, property taxes, assessments, insurance, maintenance, and repairs. Unless my wife is disabled, the Trustee may not sell the residence without her consent. If the residence is sold, the Trustee may purchase or build a suitable replacement residence, to which this paragraph then will apply.

6.4 Distribution of Remaining Assets. After my wife's death and after making provision for the payment of estate taxes on a trust administered under this Article 6, the Trustee shall divide all remaining trust assets into separate shares for my descendants, per stirpes. The Trustee shall hold each beneficiary's share as a separate trust under Article 7. If I have no descendants then living, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust assets as provided in Article 10.

rely conclusively upon the opinion of a medical doctor retained by it to make such a determination. The Trustee may pay to that person or apply for his or her benefit any income and principal of this separate trust that the Trustee in its discretion deems necessary or advisable for the person's health, education, support, and maintenance. When the person reaches age 25 or when that person's disability, in the judgment of the Trustee, ceases to exist, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining assets of this separate trust to that person. If that person dies before complete distribution of this separate trust, the remaining trust assets are to be distributed, subject to this article:

(a) as directed by that person in a testamentary general power of appointment, as provided in Article 18; otherwise,

(b) to that person's then living descendants, per stirpes; or if none,

(c) to the then living descendants, per stirpes, of that person's closest ancestor in degree who is also a descendant of mine; or if none,

(d) to my then living descendants, per stirpes; or if none,

(e) as provided in Article 10.

This article is to be effective only and is limited in duration to the extent that it does not result in any violation of any applicable rule against perpetuities or similar law.

ARTICLE 10 ALTERNATIVE DISTRIBUTION

If any property is subject to this article under another provision of this Trust, the Trustee shall distribute that property, to the extent not effectively appointed by a beneficiary, to my heirs at law, determined under Florida law then in effect as if I had died intestate and unmarried on that date as a resident of Florida.

ARTICLE 11 SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

After my death or disability, I appoint Donna M. Bartholomew and Patrick M. Opalewski as the successor Co-Trustees of all trusts created by this Trust. Each Co-Trustee shall have the authority to name his or her successor.

ARTICLE 12 PROVISIONS GOVERNING TRUSTEES

The following provisions apply to all Trustees appointed under this Trust, including me while I serve as Trustee:

12.1 Incapacity of Trustee. If my personal rights are suspended as provided in Article 3, I will cease to serve as Trustee while those rights are suspended.

material resulting in the birth of the child, including under the terms of a surrogacy agreement, regardless of when implantation of the genetic material occurred.

29.10 Gender and Number. Reference in this Trust to any gender includes either masculine or feminine, as appropriate, and reference to any number includes both singular and plural where the context permits or requires.

29.11 Headings. Use of descriptive titles for articles and paragraphs is for the purpose of convenience only and is not intended to restrict the application of those provisions.

29.12 Further Instruments. I agree to execute such further instruments as may be necessary to vest the Trustee with full legal title to the property transferred to this Trust.

29.13 Acknowledgments. Acknowledgments of this trust agreement and matters affecting the administration of the Trust may be given for purposes of recording such instruments, but the absence of an acknowledgment does not affect the validity of those instruments.

29.14 Binding Effect. This trust agreement extends to and is binding upon my Personal Representative, successors, and assigns, and upon the Trustee.

Executed as of the effective date written above.

Re: Change in Ownership for Water Right No(s): 37-10703

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right(s) to you. The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

Also, the ownership change notice was filed requesting the update to water rights 37-2644E & 37-22822. These rights are not appurtenant to your property. Water right 37-10703 is appurtenant to your property. The filing fee received with this request was $50. Because the Department only update one water right, a refund of $25 has been requested and will be sent to you under separate cover from the Idaho State Controller's Office.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at (208) 287-4942.

Sincerely,

Jean Hersley

RE: Change in Ownership Water Right No(s): 37-2644E, 37-22822

Dear Interested Parties:

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges receipt of your Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership (Notice).

Our review of your Notice indicates that additional information is required before the Department can process the change. The information required is indicated below:

☒ Evidence of Water Right Ownership: copy of Deed, Title Policy, Contract of Sale, or other legal document indicating your ownership of the property and/or water rights in question

During our review of the documentation, you submitted we found discrepancies between that documentation and the legal description of the place of use for the water right(s) indicated in your notice. I have enclosed a copy of the water right(s) for your reference. The current owner of water rights 37-2644E & 37-22822 is Mark & MarJean Bulcher. The place of use for water rights 37-2644E & 37-22822 is Township 03N, Range 18E, Section 18, NENW. The property conveyed in the quitclaim deed you provided is in Township 03N, Range 18E, Section 3, NWSW & SWSW. The Department will need a conveyance document that conveys the property appurtenant to these water rights or a description of the water rights if no land was conveyed.

Because the Department cannot process the Notice without proper documentation, we will hold any action on your notice pending receipt of the necessary information. If we do not receive the necessary information within 30 days, we will return your notice and all attachments, and your notice will not be processed.

Also, please note that permit holders are required to report any change of ownership and/or mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Forms to assign ownership or update your address are available from any office of the Department or on the Department's website.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at (208) 287-4942.

Sincerely,

Jean Hersley
