D. RESIDENCE. While the Trustor shall live, the Trustor may possess and use, without rental or accounting to the Trustee, any residence and all furniture and fixtures therein, which is an asset of this Trust. All residence expenses shall be paid by the Trust. The Trustor may continue to occupy any residence without the payment of rent therefor. The Trustor may at his discretion direct the Trustee to sell any or all residences:

1. Replacement of Trustor's Residence. Upon the sale of a residence, the Trustee shall replace such sold residence with another residence for the use of the Trustor as selected by the Trustor. Any replacement property shall be considered as a residence for purposes of this Trust. Alternatively, if the Trustor chooses, the Trustee shall lease for the sole enjoyment of the Trustor any other residence selected by the Trustor.

2. Investment of Sale Proceeds. If the Trustor does not request the acquisition of another residence with the proceeds from the sale of a residence, the Trustee shall invest the proceeds of any such sale and shall administer and distribute the income therefrom in accordance with the provisions of the Trust exclusive of this paragraph concerning residences.

3. Expenses of Residence. The Trustee shall pay all expenses attributable to property taxes, assessments, insurance, maintenance, ordinary repairs, mortgage and trust deed payments or rent or lease payments.

E. OTHER PAYMENTS. The Trustor may at any time direct the Trustee in writing to pay single sums or periodic payments out of the Trust estate to LOUISE BETTY FITCH or to any other person or entity.

F. PERSONAL PROPERTY. The Trustor shall have the right during the Trustor's lifetime to the use, without the liability for the payment of rent for such use, of jewelry, works of art and all other personal property of every kind, nature and description included in the Trust estate. Neither the Trustee nor the Trustor shall be liable to any Beneficiary of this Trust for losses resulting from such use of the property. The Trustee shall not sell any of such property during the lifetime of the Trustor without the consent of the Trustor or the consent of any guardian or conservator.

THIRD: DISTRIBUTION OF THIS TRUST AFTER THE DEATH OF LOUISE BETTY FITCH

A. PAYMENTS UPON DEATH OF TRUSTOR. The Successor Trustee may pay, in its discretion, the legally enforceable debts of LOUISE BETTY FITCH, which shall be charged to Trust estate as a whole (unless otherwise provided herein). Also, the Successor Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, pay from the income and principal of this Trust the death and estate taxes (including penalties and interest), probate fees on non-trust properties, attorney's fees and other expenses incurred in administering the Trustor's estate, and the expenses of the last illness and funeral of the Trustor.

B. DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. After the death of Trustor, the Successor Trustee shall distribute all tangible personal property of the Trustor, including but not limited to, furniture, furnishings, rugs, pictures, books, silverplate, linen, china, glassware, objects of art, wearing apparel, jewelry, ornaments and automobiles in accordance with any written statement or list that the Trustor leaves disposing of this property. Any such statement or list then in existence shall be determinative with respect to all bequests made therein.

C. DISTRIBUTION TO THE BENEFICIARIES. After the death of the Trustor, the Successor Trustee shall deliver and distribute all of the rest and remainder of the Trust property as follows, with the following conditions and restrictions as outlined below:

1. 1757 Deer Trail, Donnelly, Idaho, is to be held in Trust for the use and benefit of BETTY MARIA FITCH and MARY JANE LOVE, equally, with the express condition and restriction that in the event that either BETTY MARIA FITCH or MARY JANE LOVE die, then their use and benefit will revert to their respective children, per stirpes. If at any time, MARY JANE LOVE desires to sell said property, BETTY MARIA FITCH, shall have a first right of refusal and the property will transfer to BETTY MARIA FITCH, upon payment of the interest of MARY JANE LOVE to MARY JANE LOVE, at fair market value. Any improvements made to 1757 Deer Trail, Donnelly, Idaho, by BETTY MARIA FITCH, at her sole expense or through her sole effort shall be deducted from the purchase/repayment price of what she caused the value of the property to have increased in value beyond its value as raw land; such as utility lines, road access, culvert or driveway installation, road access, water rights, improvements or buildings.

2. The cabin, real property and contents therein located at or upon 1613 Bear Trail Loop, Cascade, Idaho, is to be intended to be a family retreat and gathering center for the descendants of MAURICE FITCH and LOUISE FITCH for as long as there are descendants willing and able to care for, maintain, and love the family heritage it represents and the family history it holds and is to be held in Trust for the use and benefit of BETTY MARIA FITCH, MARY JANE LOVE and DEANNA GAIL GRANT, with the express condition and restriction that in the event that should any of them die then their use and benefit will revert to their respective children, per stirpes, and if the said property is to ever be sold, only blood relatives shall have a first right of refusal to purchase said property at fair market value, with the oldest generation having first choice.

In order to effectuate this, a bank account shall be established in the name of this Trust to be used for the maintenance, repairs and any other expenses required for said property. There will be a written statement prepared and put with this Trust no later than December 31, 2018, that will set forth the requirements for the funding of this account, contributions, limitations of use, time allocations if any, maintenance needs, restrictions, and other policies or issues regarding the use of the property, which at this time all three (3) beneficiaries above will equally share in the expenses for said property.

Any monies paid by BETTY MARIA FITCH for the taxes, insurance, utilities, repairs or any other necessary expenses beyond her 1/3 share shall be repaid plus 5% interest apr, or credited towards her share of this property or 1757 Deer Trail, Donnelly, Idaho above, as she chooses. Should the credit amount owed to her by MARY JANE LOVE meet 50% of the assessed or market value, whichever is less, of 1757 Deer Trail, Donnelly, Idaho above, MARY JANE LOVE and/or her heirs, will sign a Quitclaim Deed releasing all of her interest and ownership in the property as repayment of such debt.

3. All the rest and remainder of the Trust assets are to be distributed equally to BETTY MARIA FITCH, MARY JANE LOVE and DEANNA GAIL GRANT.

FOURTH: UNDISTRIBUTED INCOME, BURIAL EXPENSE. Any income which is undistributed at the time of the termination of any interest or estate created herein shall belong and go to the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries entitled to the eventual interest or estate provided for herein in the same proportion as the principal thereof; provided, that upon the death of a Beneficiary then entitled to have net income paid, credited or accumulated for his or her benefit under the provisions of this Trust Agreement, the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, may pay out of income or principal of the Trust benefitting such Beneficiary, his or her last illness, funeral, burial, probate costs, attorney's fees, estate and inheritance taxes, including interest penalties, arising on the death of the Beneficiary.

FIFTH: SPENDTHRIFT PROVISION. Each and every Beneficiary under the Trust and the various estates created hereunder is hereby restrained from and shall be without right, power or authority to sell, transfer, assign, pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, alienate, anticipate, bequeath or devise, or in any manner affect or impair his, her or their beneficial right, title, interest, claim and estate in and to either the income or principal of any trust created hereunder, or to any part thereof, during the entire term of said Trusts; nor shall the right, title, interest or estate of any Beneficiary be subject to any right, claim, demand, lien or judgment of any creditor of any such Beneficiary, nor be subject nor liable to any process of law or equity, but all of the income and principal, except as otherwise provided in this Trust, shall by the Trustee be payable and deliverable to or for the benefit of only the before named and designated Beneficiaries, at the times hereinbefore set out, and receipt by such Beneficiaries shall relieve the Trustee from responsibility for such good faith distributions.

SIXTH: POWERS OF TRUSTEE. With respect to the Trust property, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Trust, the Trustee shall have all powers now or hereafter conferred upon Trustee by applicable state law, and also those powers appropriate to the orderly and effective administration of the Trust. Any expenditure involved in the exercise of the Trustee's powers shall be borne by the Trust estate. Such powers shall include, but not be limited to, the following powers with respect to the assets in the Trust estate:

A. To continue to hold any property, either in the Trustee's name or its nominee's name, and to operate at the risk of the Trust estate any business that the Trustee receives or acquires under the Trust as long as the Trustee deems advisable.

B. To manage, control, grant options on, sell (for cash or on deferred payments), convey, exchange, partition, divide, improve and repair Trust property.

C. To lease Trust property for terms within or beyond the term of the Trust and for any purpose, including exploration for any removal of gas, oil and other minerals; and to enter into community oil leases, pooling and unitization agreements.

D. To borrow money and to encumber Trust property by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge or otherwise; to borrow money on behalf of one Trust from any other Trust created hereunder, and to guarantee loans made by or to LOUISE BETTY FITCH during their lifetime.

E. To carry, at the expense of the Trust, insurance of such kinds and in such amounts as the Trustee deems advisable to protect the Trust estate and the Trustee against any hazard.

F. To commence or defend such litigation with respect to the Trust or any property of the Trust estate as the Trustee may deem advisable at the expense of the Trust.

G. To compromise or otherwise adjust any claims or litigation against or in favor of the Trust.

H. To invest and reinvest the Trust estate in every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, corporate obligations of every kind, stocks, preferred or common, shares of investment trusts, investment companies, and mutual funds and mortgage participation which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire for their own account, and to invest in any common trust fund administered by the Trustee and to lend money of one Trust to any other Trust created hereunder.

I. With respect to securities held in the Trust, to have all the rights, powers and privileges of any owner, including but not by way of limitation, the power to vote, give proxies and pay assessments; to participate in voting trusts, pooling agreements, foreclosures, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers, liquidations, sales and leases and incident to such participation to deposit securities with and transfer title to any protective or other committee on such terms as the Trustee may deem advisable; and to exercise or sell stock subscriptions or conversion rights.

J. All of the Trust powers set forth in Nevada Revised Statutes 163.265 to 163.410, inclusive, are hereby incorporated into this Trust Agreement, regardless of the state of the Trustor's residence, but only to the extent they do not conflict with any other provision of this instrument.

K. To hold any property transferred to the Trust by the Trustor, without regard to the investment quality or diversification of that investment. This shall not require the Trustee to hold such property, but the Trustee may retain such property without incurring liability in so doing.

L. If it is deemed advisable, the Trustee shall have the right to form corporations or to form general or limited partnerships to hold title to any trust asset so as to better manage or distribute the said asset or to prevent fragmenting title to any asset through distribution to such an extent it would become unmanageable.

M. To buy, sell or transfer securities of any nature, including short sells on margin and for such purposes Trustee may maintain and operate margin accounts with brokers; and may pledge any securities held or purchased by the Trust with such brokers as security for loans and advances made to Trustee.

N. To seek the assistance of the courts in all matters affecting the administration of this Trust or its properties, including advice on the interpretation of the Trust or for settlement of any account by invoking the jurisdiction of any District court with jurisdiction (including quasi-in-rem jurisdiction) over the Trust, the Trustee, or the trust res, in a non-adversary ex parte proceeding. The decision of the court shall be binding upon all interested parties who were given written mailing notice of the proceedings to their last known address.

O. To lend money to any person or entity, except a bank Successor Trustee, including the probate estate of the Trustor, provided that any such loan shall bear a reasonable rate of interest.

P. To purchase property at its fair market value as determined by the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, from the probate estate of the Trustor.

Q. To release or to restrict the scope of any power that the Trustee may hold in connection with the Trust created under this instrument, whether such power is expressly granted in the instrument or implied by law. The Trustee shall exercise this power in a written instrument executed by the Trustee, specifying the powers to be released or restricted and the nature of the restriction.

R. To withhold from distribution, in the Trustee's discretion, at the time for distribution of any property in this Trust, without the payment of interest, all or any part of the property, as long as the Trustee shall determine in the Trustee's discretion that such property may be subject to conflicting claims, to tax deficiencies, or to liabilities, contingent or otherwise, properly incurred in the administration of the estate.

S. To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust estate in any common or preferred stocks, shares of investment trusts and investment companies, bonds, debentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, mortgage participation, notes, real estate, or other property the Trustee in the Trustee's discretion selects; to buy stocks or other securities on margin; and to buy or sell options, put and calls. The Trustee may continue to hold in the form in which received (or the form to which changed by reorganization, split-up stock dividend, or other like occurrence) any securities or other property the Trustee may at any time acquire under this Trust, it being the Trustor's express desire and intention that the Trustee shall have full power to invest and reinvest the Trust funds in an aggressive manner assuming greater than customary risks of loss in the manner that, under the circumstances then prevailing (specifically including but not limited to the general economic conditions and the anticipated needs of the Trust and its Beneficiaries), persons of skill, prudence and diligence acting in a similar capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of any enterprise of a similar character and with similar aims to attain the goals of the Trustor under this instrument without being restricted to forms in investment that the Trustee may otherwise be permitted to make by law.

T. To advance funds to the Trust for any Trust purpose. The interest rate imposed for such advances shall not exceed the then current rates.

U. To determine what is principal or income to the Trust and apportion and allocate receipts and expenses as between these accounts.

V. To make payments hereunder directly to any beneficiary under disability, to the guardian of his or her person or Estate, to any other person deemed suitable by Trustee, or by direct payment of such Beneficiary's expenses.

W. To open and maintain safety deposit boxes in the name of this Trust.

X. To make distributions to any Trust or Beneficiary hereunder in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest therein, or partly in cash and partly in such property, and to do so without regard to the income tax basis of specific property so distributed. The Trustor requests but does not direct, that the Trustee make distributions in a manner which will result in maximizing the aggregate increase in income tax basis of assets of the Estate on account of Federal and State Estate, inheritance and succession taxes attributable to appreciation of such assets.

Y. The enumeration of certain powers of the Trustee shall not limit his general powers, subject always to the discharge of his fiduciary obligations, and being vested with and having all the rights, powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have.

SEVENTH: SPECIAL PROVISIONS.

A. Home. The Trustee shall allow the Trustor, (or the Trustor's spouse if the Trustor is married at the time of the Trustor's death) to occupy and use the home of the Trustor, without rent to the Trust until the death of the Trustor and also until the death or remarriage (or "constructive marriage") of his spouse (if any) (i.e., the person to whom the Trustor is married at the time of death.).

If a Trustee is removed, the Trustor shall pay to the Trustee any sums due and shall indemnify the Trustee against liability lawfully incurred by the Trustee in the administration of the Trusts.

C. When the Trust Becomes Irrevocable. After the Trustor's death, this instrument may not be revoked, altered, amended or terminated; powers of appointment may be exercised, however.

D. Amendment Notice. No amendment shall be deemed binding upon any Trustee unless the amendment is in writing and is delivered to the Trustee named in this Trust instrument.

E. Physical Division of Trust Property Not Required. There need be no physical segregation or division of the various Trusts except as segregation or division may be required by the termination of any of the Trusts, but the Trustee shall keep separate accounts for the different undivided interests.

F. Notice to Trustee of Births, Deaths and Other Events Affecting Interests. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with other provisions of this instrument, all Trusts created under this instrument shall terminate twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last survivor of the group composed of the Trustor and the Trustor's issue and parents and their issue living on the date of the death of the Trustor. The principal and undistributed income of a terminated Trust shall be distributed to the then income beneficiaries of that Trust in the same proportion that the beneficiaries are entitled to receive income when the Trust terminates. If at the time of such termination the rights to income are not fixed by the terms of the Trust, distribution under this clause shall be made, by right of representation, to the persons who are entitled or authorized, in the Trustee's discretion, to receive Trust payments.

H. Choice of Law Clause. The validity of this Trust and the construction of its beneficial provisions shall be governed by the laws of the State of Nevada in force from time to time. This Paragraph shall apply regardless of any change of residence of the Trustee or any Beneficiary, or the appointment or substitution of a Trustee residing or doing business in another state.

I. Limitation of Trust Powers. Administrative control and all other powers relating to the various Trust estates created hereunder shall be exercised by the Trustee in a fiduciary capacity. Neither the Trustee, nor any other person (except the Trustor), shall be permitted to purchase, exchange, reacquire or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal of any of the various Trust estates or the income therefrom, for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; nor shall any person borrow the principal or income of the Trust Estates, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest in any case or without adequate security therefor.

J. Invalid Provisions. In the event any clause, provision or provisions of this Trust Agreement and the Trust created hereunder prove to be or be adjudged invalid or void for any reason, then such invalid or void clause, provision or provisions shall not affect the whole of this instrument, but the balance of the provisions hereof shall be carried into effect insofar as legally possible.

K. Incompetency of Beneficiary. During any period in which the Trustor or any Beneficiary under this Trust Agreement is judicially declared incompetent, or in the opinion of the Trustee is unable to care for himself, the Trustee shall pay over or use for the benefit of said Beneficiary any part or all of the net income or principal from his or her share of the Trust estate, in such manner as the Trustee shall deem necessary or desirable for said Beneficiary's support, maintenance and medical care.

L. Claimants. The Trustor has, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Trust, intentionally and with full knowledge declined to provide for any and all of his heirs or other persons who may claim an interest in his respective estates or in these Trusts.

EIGHTH: LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES. With respect to any policies of life insurance under which the Trustee is designated as beneficiary, the Trustee shall deal with such policies as required by the following Trust provisions, in addition to the general Trust provisions hereinbefore and hereinafter set forth:

A. Custody of Insurance Policies. The Trustee shall have the custody of any policy of life insurance under which the Trustee is designated as owner.

B. Payment of Premiums. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to pay the premium of any policy or policies of insurance nor to make certain that such premiums are paid by the Trustor or others, nor to notify any persons of the non-payment of such premiums; and, the Trustee shall be under no responsibility or liability of any kind in case such premiums are not paid.

C. Collection of Policy Proceeds. Upon the death of the insured under such policy or policies, the Trustee shall collect all proceeds due thereon and the Trustee shall make all reasonable efforts to carry out the provisions of this Trust Agreement, including the maintenance of or defense of any action or suit; provided, however, the Trustee shall be under no duty to maintain or enter into any litigation unless the expenses thereof, including counsel fees and costs, have been advanced or guaranteed in an amount and in a manner which is reasonably satisfactory. The Trustee may repay any advances made by the Trustee or reimburse itself for any such fees and costs expended in reasonable attempts for collection of such proceeds out of the principal or income of the Trust.

D. Purchase of Assets. The Trustee is hereby authorized and empowered to apply any part or the whole amount of any insurance proceeds collected hereunder to purchase assets from the insured's estate which may be offered for sale by the legal representative of the insured's estate at a price equal to the value of such assets fixed by competent authority for purposes of determining the liability of the insured's estate for estate tax or at such other price as may be agreed upon by the personal representative of the insured's estate.

E. Trustor's Retention of Rights in Policy. The owner of each policy made payable to any Trust created in this instrument reserves all rights, options, and privileges conferred on the owner by the terms of the policy, including but not limited to the right to change its beneficiary designation, to hypothecate the policy, and to borrow funds from the insurer. The Trustee shall not be responsible for acts or omissions of the Trustor relating to any insurance policy.

NINTH: NON-CONTEST PROVISION. The Trustor specifically desires that these Trusts created herein be administered and distributed without litigation or dispute of any kind. If any Beneficiary of these Trusts or any other person, whether stranger, relative, or heir, or any legatees or devisees under the Last Will and Testament of the Trustor or the successors-in-interest of such persons, including any person who may be entitled to receive any portion of the Trustor's estate under the intestate laws of the State of Nevada,

TENTH: GUARDIAN'S EXPENDITURES. The Trustor does not desire, after his death, that the guardian of any minor Beneficiary should incur personal expense in the support and maintenance of such beneficiary. The Trustee is authorized to disburse funds from such Beneficiary's Trust estate for the purpose of reimbursing such guardian for reasonable expenses incurred in supporting and caring for such minor Beneficiary.

Rather, the Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, make non pro rate divisions between Trusts or shares and non pro rate distributions to Beneficiaries as long as the respective assets allocated to separate Trusts or shares or the distributions to Beneficiaries have equivalent or proportionate fair market value. Re: Change in Ownership for Water Right No: 65-7665

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right to you. The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at (208) 334-2190.

Sincerely,

Lynne Evans
Office Specialist II
