Good afternoon Lori,

I am doing a quick review of the transfer (attached) for Austin Callison and wanted to let you know that the application is missing the conveyance documents for the ownership change and that fee is short $25 (receipt attached) to complete the ownership change. I checked with our staff up front and she said the conveyance documents were not enclosed with the application. I wanted to check with you to find out if the ownership change was submitted separately, if the check at the top of the application was a typo, or if the ownership change documents should have been included with the application.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you for your assistance!
