I didn't hear of any conflicts with the proposed date and time. Therefore, the joint status conference for Applications for Transfer 84488 and 84490 will be moved from tomorrow to Tuesday, April 20, 2020 at 9:00 am. This will give the parties some additional time to discuss settlement proposals. We will update the calendar item and send out a notice later this week. Please forward this email to any of your people who were planning on attending the conference tomorrow.

I don't have any concerns about bumping the conference a couple of weeks. I am free on Tuesday, April 20th at 9 am. It appears that there is a status conference for the Jefferson Clark GWD recharge application at 10 am. If 9 am on April 20th doesn't work for any of you, please let me know by Monday morning. I will send out an email on Monday confirming the change.

Hi James,

After discussing the status of the protests and issues to resolve, the parties are wondering if we could move next Tuesday's pre-hearing to sometime Mon. Apr 19th or Tue. 20th? Do you have any open times those two days?

Thanks

Travis
