OPERATING AGREEMENT

ROBERTSON AVON, LLC

ARTICLE I FORMATION OF COMPANY

The undersigned, having established an Idaho Limited Liability Company named "Robertson Avon, LLC," hereby adopt this agreement to provide for the governance and possible eventual dissolution of the company.

1. The parties to this agreement are Brian Kelly Robertson and Pamela M. Robertson.

2. The company's Certificate of Organization was accepted for filing by the office of the Idaho Secretary of State on January 29, 2019. The Certificate identified Brian Kelly Robertson as the company's registered agent and 1060 Old Avon Road, Deary, Idaho 83823, as its mailing address.

ARTICLE II BUSINESS OF COMPANY

1. The primary business of the company will be holding real estate.

2. In furtherance of the company's primary business, the company is authorized to transact any lawful business which the members deem beneficial to the company, to exercise all other powers reasonably connected with the company's business, and to engage in all activities necessary, customary, convenient, or incidental to any of the foregoing purposes and powers.

ARTICLE III MEMBERS

The initial members of the company are the parties named in Article I, Section 1. The admission of additional members is restricted as provided in Article VII.

ARTICLE IV CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The initial capital contributions of the initial members shall consist of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

2. In exchange for their initial capital contributions, members will receive ownership interests in the company proportional to their capital contributions. Ownership interests will be referred to as "shares" but will have the legal attributes of "transferable interests" as defined by Idaho Code §30-6-502, rather than corporate stock.

3. The number of shares initially issued will be as follows:

Brian Kelly Robertson	50
Pamela M. Robertson	50
Total:	100

4. The company may accept additional capital contributions from members and issue shares in consideration for those contributions on whatever terms and conditions may be agreed at that time between the contributing member or members, on the one hand, and the company (as governed by majority vote of the members) on the other.

ARTICLE V PROFITS, LOSSES, AND DISTRIBUTIONS

1. Profits, losses, gains, credits, deductions, and other tax-related consequences of company operations shall be attributed to the owners in proportion to their ownership shares as of the close of that calendar year, regardless of when and whether money is distributed.

2. Distributions will be determined by majority vote of the members. All distributions must be proportional to the owners' shares.

3. A member shall not be personally liable for any debts or losses of the company beyond the balance of that member's capital account.

ARTICLE VI MANAGEMENT

1. The day-to-day operations of the company shall be managed by the Members and shall not have any Managers within the meaning of the Act.

2. The Members may exercise all powers of the LLC and do all lawful acts and things as they may determine to be necessary or appropriate in the ordinary course of the trade of business of the LLC.

3. Notwithstanding the above, members may not do or permit to be done any of the following without the express approval of all members: a) any act or thing which this Agreement expressly requires to be approved, consented to, determined, or authorized by the members; b) voluntarily cause the dissolution of the LLC; c) sell all or a significant part of the LLC assets, or engage in any material recapitalization or merger.

4. Unless the Act or this Agreement expressly requires a greater vote or consent, all matters requiring the vote, approval, consent, authorization or determination of the members or of all members shall require the vote or consent of members holding a majority of the issued and outstanding Interests held by all members.

5. Regular meetings of the members may be held without notice at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the members. Special meetings of the members may be called by any members who then own at least fifty percent (50%) of the company shares, provided that written notice of the time and place of the meeting and any proposed action is given to all members by certified mail dispatched to their last known postal addresses at least twenty-one days before the meeting. A member's actual attendance at such meeting shall be sufficient to satisfy the notice requirement as to that member. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting, if a majority of all members, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the members meeting. Votes may be taken at a meeting or by telephone, electronic mail, or any other medium or process that affords each member a reasonable opportunity to participate. Decisions may be reached by informal consultation and consensus so long as no member objects, but a member may require a documented vote on any issue. A written consent signed by any combination of members who together own a majority (fifty percent plus one) of the company shares shall have the same effect as a formal vote, and such consent may be used in lieu of any annual or special meeting of the members. Consent in lieu of a meeting may be given by electronic mail.

6. Unless otherwise expressly approved by the members, the members shall not be entitled to any compensation for services or activities undertaken in their capacity as a member of the LLC.

7. The Members shall have the duty and authority to amend the Articles of Organization or this Agreement as and to the extent necessary to reflect any and all changes or corrections necessary or appropriate as a result of any action taken by the Members in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

1. The company may be dissolved at any time by unanimous consent of the members, and the members shall then wind up the company's affairs as provided by Idaho law.

2. In the event of a member's death, the company will continue in existence unless it is dissolved as provided above in paragraph 1. The executor, representative, heirs and devisees of the deceased member shall have the same rights as the deceased Member with respect to his or her shares.

3. If the successors of a deceased member wish to liquidate their shares, the remaining members may purchase those shares on whatever terms and conditions may be agreed among the participating parties. However, if the parties are unable to agree, and if the members do not unanimously consent to dissolution, then the successors of the deceased member will remain members until those conditions change or until a court order provides other relief.

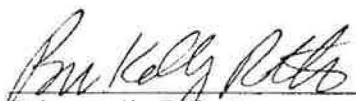

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

This Operating Agreement may be amended at any time by majority vote as specified in Article VI, except that unanimous consent shall be required to amend any provision that itself requires unanimous consent for an action, as listed in Article VI, Section 3.
