Shaun,

My middle initial is P and my wife's is A. You have permission to correct line 11 to read Idaho dept. of lands. Thanks for the other info. I have calls in to both Amidy and Mike and will give you the L number when I get it. We've owned the property for 23 yrs and I think the property was developed in the 60s. Have to believe there was an encroachment permit somewhere along the line. Bob

Mr. Parker:

Thanks for the information you provided, about your Application For Permit, during our phone conversation earlier today. Line 11(a) of your Application (see Attachment) indicates that you are owner of the property at the Point of Diversion (POD) where the waterline starts in Spirit Lake. Please reply to this e-mail indicating your approval to change this to read 'Idaho Department of Lands' and add your approval to include your middle initials on Line 1 of the Application. I have attached a copy of your Application.

The Point of Contact for Idaho Department of Lands at the Mica Supervisory Area Office in Coeur d'Alene is Amidy Fuson or Mike Ahmer at (208)769.1577. You will need to provide your Kootenai County property tax parcel number (53N05W142000) in order for them to determine if there is an existing Encroachment Permit Number in your name for a dock/waterline on your property. The Kootenai County Assessor shows Anthony F. Rund, Evan L. Armstrong, or Nancy W. Clarke as prior owners of your property. You may want to ask if there is an Encroachment Permit on record for your property in any of these prior owner names if there is not an existing Encroachment Permit in your name.

Please send me the Encroachment Permit number if you have one, or let me know if you have applied, to get an Encroachment Permit.

Thanks,

Shaun Maxey
