Re: Linderman/Hamilton-Application for Permit 47-17664

Dear Corey:

Since you visited the site last summer, I have been in communications with Mr. Linderman's attorneys, Justin May and Nate Fowler. The parties have been unable to reach any accommodation regarding the use of irrigation water on the Linderman property. I do, however, understand from Mr. Fowler that the Lindermans have decided to proceed on the above Application for Permit. Mr. and Ms. Hamilton are continuing to protest that Application.

Accordingly, I am sending this letter to you and the Lindermans' counsel, asking that everyone provide you the times they would be available for a prehearing status conference on the Application for Permit. The Hamiltons and I will make ourselves available at your convenience over the next couple of weeks. If IDWR is not currently amenable to in-person meetings, my clients and I would like to go ahead with a video conference.

Thank you, and I look forward to receiving your response indicating how and when we may proceed to resume the contested case proceedings.

Sincerely,

Patrick D. Brown
