RE: Watermaster Reports for 2003 Season

Dear John,

I heard that everyone has moved up a step. I'm not yet sure to whom I should now direct my reports, so you are it until you let me know otherwise.

Sorry I am so late getting them done. My excuse is that I had to undergo some chemotherapy last fall. It left me a little more goofy than I normally am! I am just now getting where my thoughts aren't so muddled. I wanted them done as correctly as possible, given last years difficulties. Anyway, that is my excuse for the delay. I hope the lateness doesn't inconvenience you terribly.

I called IDWR today to talk to you, but both you and the person assuming your duties were out. The receptionist said it was OK to send these to you to be notarized, as I have occasionally done in the past. Otherwise it would be the middle of next week before I could get them notarized and in the mail.

Respectfully,

Connie M. Brandau
