To Whom It May Concern:

As you may know, we belong to a family of businesses with a shared mission: to decrease the pressure on wild salmon and trout. Originally, each business was named independently: Spring Salmon (parent company), Riverence (salmon and trout egg production in Washington), and Evaqua Farms (trout production and processing in Idaho). Though each business provides unique value to different industry sectors, the naming structure makes it challenging to tell our shared story and mission.

I'm pleased to announce that as of January 1, 2020, all of our businesses now share the Riverence name. Evaqua Farms LLC has been renamed to Riverence Farms LLC, Riverence (our egg farm in Washington) has been renamed to Riverence Brood LLC, and the parent company of our operations is Riverence Holdings LLC. Implementing the Riverence naming convention throughout our organization will help promote market recognition for every aspect of our business, and will help our customers communicate the value of our products from egg to plate.

It's important to note that these are name changes only: each business has the same leadership, same mission, same products, and same staff.

Our EIN (tax ID) and business contact information (address, phone number, etc) remains the same. Please update your records to reflect our new name, replacing Evaqua Farms LLC with Riverence Farms LLC. Moving forward, all invoices and communications will come from our new business name. Our Evaqua Farms email addresses will be changed to Riverence email addresses in the near future, and we will keep you updated on our timeline for updating your address book.

You can find us online at www.riverence.com, or @riverenceusa on social platforms.

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for your continued trust and support of Riverence trout! Please contact me or your usual point of contact with any further questions or concerns.

Best Regards,

Rob Young, CEO

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department of Water Resources (Department) acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing the entity name on the above referenced water right(s). The Department has modified its records and has enclosed a computer-generated report for you.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership, the Department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited or deliberately abandoned through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see Idaho Code §§ 42-222 and 42-223.

Please note, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address to the Department within 120 days of the change. Reporting forms are available from any office of the Department, or from the Department's website.

If you have any questions concerning the enclosed information, please contact me at (208) 293-9908.

Sincerely,

Denise Maline
Administrative Assistant 1
