Hi Sascha,

Can you please process this refund request? Brockway Engineering filed an application for transfer; however they have asked that we return it and not move forward with processing at this time. They have also requested a refund of the filing fees (per the attached e-mail).

Please let me know if there are any questions.

Thank you (see you tomorrow) ☺

Subject: Roth Investments Transfer

Corey and Benny,

I recently submitted a water right transfer of stockwater for 36-2612B owned by Roth Investments LLC. Due to unforeseen decisions, the property in which water right 36-2612B is currently located is being considered for purchase. The proposed entity that may purchase the property does not want the transfer to proceed as submitted to IDWR. It is my understanding that the transfer has been assigned to Benny Walker and that the transfer has not be data entered yet into IDWRs transfer program. Please mail the transfer application back to Brockway Engineering and refund the submitted transfer fee. If you have any questions or concerns about this transfer, please give me a call.

Thank you,

Greg Sullivan
