FIDUCIARY DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY
FOR
RALPH PEAK FAMILY TRUST

Mary Lou Peak, Trustee of the Ralph Peak Family Trust, dated September 22, 1992, Ralph F. Peak and Mary Lou Peak, Trustors and/or Trustees (hereinafter referred to as the principal), without revoking any other powers of attorney which the principal may have previously executed, hereby executes this Fiduciary Durable Power of Attorney, as follows:

1. Designation. Frank R. Peak is hereby designated as attorney-in-fact for the principal, and Marie N. Griffith is designated first successor attorney-in-fact. The designated successor attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to act as attorney-in-fact for the principal upon the inability, unwillingness or failure to act of, the designated prior attorney-in-fact.

2. Effectiveness and Duration. This power of attorney shall become effective immediately, shall not be affected by the disability or incompetence of the principal, and shall continue until revoked or terminated under paragraph 5 or 6, below, notwithstanding any uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive.

3. Powers. The attorney-in-fact, as a fiduciary, shall have all the management and investment powers of the Trustee over the assets and liabilities of the Trust Estate, whether located within or without the State of Washington, including, without limitation, the power and authority to:

A. Purchase, take possession of, lease, sell, convey, exchange, mortgage, release and encumber real property or any interest in real property;

B. Purchase, receive, take possession of, lease, sell, assign, endorse, exchange, release, mortgage, and pledge personal property or any interest in personal property including but not limited to stocks, bonds, mutual funds, securities, coins, precious metals and business interests;

C. Make deposits to, and payments from, any account in a financial institution in the name of the principal, and enter any safe deposit box to which the principal has a right of access and deposit or remove property therefrom;

D. Request, demand, recover, collect, endorse, and receive all monies, debt accounts, gifts, bequests, dividends, annuities, rents and payments due the principal;

E. Pay, settle, compromise or otherwise discharge any and all claims of liability or indebtedness against the principal and, in so doing, use any of the principal's funds or other assets or use funds or other assets of the attorney-in-fact and obtain reimbursement out of the principal's funds or other assets;

F. Participate in any legal action in the name of the principal or otherwise. This shall include (a) actions for attachment, execution, eviction, foreclosure, indemnity, and any other proceeding for equitable or injunctive relief; and (b) legal proceedings in connection with the authority granted in this instrument;

G. Sign, seal, execute, deliver and acknowledge all written instruments and do and perform each and every act and thing whatsoever which may by necessary or proper in the exercise of the powers and authority granted to the attorney-in-fact as fully as the principal could do if personally present;

H. Prepare, or arrange for the preparation of, all federal and state income tax and gift tax returns on behalf of the principal, execute and submit such returns, and pay all such taxes as may be due;

I. Represent the principal with respect to audits, appeals, and lawsuits related to any income or gift tax return filed on behalf of the principal, and pay any assessments for interest or penalties levied against the principal in connection with such tax returns; and

J. Make gifts, whether outright or in trust, to the relatives of the principal and the spouses of any such relatives, in accordance with any pattern of making gifts to such persons which the principal has established or planned to establish or in such amounts as the attorney-in-fact shall determine appropriate so long as such gifts would be in the best interests of the principal and those interested in the estate of the principal, such determination to be made in the sole discretion of the attorney-in-fact.

4. Limitations on Powers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the attorney-in-fact shall not have the power to revoke or change any estate planning or testamentary documents previously executed by the principal, exercise any power of appointment, or disclaim any interest unless authorized with court approval.

5. Termination. This power of attorney may be terminated by:

A. The principal by written notice to the attorney-in-fact and, if this power of attorney has been recorded, by recording the written instrument of revocation in the office of the Recorder or Auditor of the place where the power was recorded;

B. A guardian or limited guardian of the estate of the principal after Court approval of such revocation; or

C. The death of the principal upon actual knowledge or receipt of written notice by the attorney-in-fact.

6. Revocation. If the attorney-in-fact is the principal's spouse, the commencement of a legal proceeding in a Court of competent jurisdiction to obtain a decree of dissolution of marriage, of legal separation, or declaration of invalidity of marriage shall effect an automatic revocation of this power of attorney as to such attorney-in-fact.

7. Accounting. The attorney-in-fact shall be required to account to any subsequently appointed guardian or personal representative for the principal.

8. Reliance. All persons dealing with the attorney-in-fact shall be entitled to rely upon this power of attorney so long as they have no actual knowledge nor actual notice of any revocation, suspension or termination of this power of attorney by death or otherwise. Any action taken pursuant to this power of attorney, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the principal and on the principal's successors in interest.

9. Indemnity. The estate of the principal shall hold harmless and indemnify the attorney-in-fact from all liability for acts done in good faith and not in fraud of the principal.

10. Photocopies. My attorney-in-fact is authorized to make photocopies of this executed document as frequently and in such quantity as my attorney-in-fact shall deem appropriate. All photocopies shall have the same force and effect as any original.

11. Applicable Law: Severability. In the event that any provision herein is invalid, the remaining provisions shall nonetheless be in full force and effect.
