4. Property ownership: ☐ No changes to point of diversion and/or place of use. Skip item #4 and proceed to #5.

- a. Who owns the property at the point of diversion? Raymond Quillen (1st point of Diversion) Jim & Ella Dilling (2nd point of
b. Who owns the land to be irrigated or place of use? Jim and Ella Dilling Diversion)
c. If the property is owned by a person other than the applicant, describe the arrangement enabling the applicant to make this filing:
With regard to the first point of diversion, the parties entered into a Water Use and Maintenance Agreement on September 12, 2003, a copy of which is attached to the original permit application. A judicial determination has been made finding the Agreement to be enforceable between the parties, a copy of which is attached.

5. Describe the proposed change in narrative form:

In the original permit application, the applicant requested groundwater diversion from a well located on neighboring property for agricultural purposes, as allowed by the Water Use and Maintenance Agreement. A copy of the original permit application is attached. Without a timely filed protest or a hearing, the Department placed a condition on the Permit, copy enclosed, limiting water diverted from the neighboring well to domestic use (condition #8). The applicant was unaware of this condition until it was pointed out by the water rights examiner. Applicant requests that the Permit be amended to conform to the original permit application for the first point of diversion for irrigation water. The second point of diversion is being amended pursuant IDWR's request.

6. Map: ☐ The point(s) of diversion and/or the place of use are not amended, therefore a map is not attached.

Attach a map showing the proposed point(s) of diversion and/or place(s) of use. Clearly label the map with township, range, section, and 1/4 1/4 of section information. A photocopy of a USGS 7.5 minute topographic quadrangle is commonly used, or the Map Tool available on the Department website provides a satisfactory template for creating the required map (<http://maps.idwr.idaho.gov/TransferApplicationLayouts/Map>).

7. Signature:

The information in this application is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any willful misrepresentations in this application may result in rejection of the application or cancellation of an approval.
