Once I get the original, I will send them a deficiency Letter explaining what is required of them in order to move forward.

Mr. Jolley is deceased. Mr. Stokes and his wife have inherited the property but the permit was not assigned before Mr. Jolley passed. Can the new property owner provide proof of ownership? Does the taxlot layer show Stokes as the owner of the property? I know we have accepted proof from new property owners before without assignment.

If there are some options will you please just write Mr. Stokes and tell him what you need?

Cindy,

The signature on the bottom of the proof statement does not appear to the signature of the permit holder E Dale Jollley. Boyd Stokes can't sign on behalf of the permit holder without some form of authority to.

Thanks. I did know that, but was having an "OLD" brain cramp.

So, attached is copy of a proof received here at Salmon today. Proof is due Aug 1. If you're not familiar with the policy, I can receive time-sensitive filings with fees but I don't receipt. I have issued a temporary hand receipt. The original with the check will be mailed to Boise today to be receipted into the state system when it arrives. Unless there are deficiencies in the filing (and I don't check for that), proof should be considered timely even if received in Boise after Aug 1.

See Pam or call me if you have questions.

They start losing time against their priority date if the proof or extension is received after the Proof Due Date, even if it is 1 day late.

Darla – isn't there a little grace period for proof filings where no priority is lost? 10 days or something?
