MEMORANDUM

Date: May 14, 2018
To: Water Right 74-16038 Transfer 82326 Hedt
From: Rachael Smith
Re: Review & Evaluation of Sufficiency of Information

Purpose: The transfer proposes changing the point of diversion (POD) for water right 74-16038. The Upper Salmon Basin Watershed Program provided a letter with the transfer application explaining that the existing POD is in a location which will become dry due to a restoration project which will be completed in the summer-fall of 2018. Moving the POD upstream will allow the water right holder to continue to receive water and will also allow water to be piped into a screened gravity fed system to pods on the current POU. Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) is completing the design for the new irrigation system.

POUs: The place of use will remain the same. There are no overlapping rights or combined limits with this water right.

PODs: It appears as though the POD as currently mapped in ArcMap is incorrect as it is placed in the middle of the section on a dry hillside even though the source of water for the water right is Pratt Creek. The POD as currently mapped overlaps with water right 74-405. Water right 74-405 authorizes diversion from springs tributary to Pratt Creek and has a priority date that is junior to water right 74-16038.

The map provided with the transfer application shows the POD in a different, more probable location along Pratt Creek. At this location, there is no POD overlap.

The proposed POD will be upstream of the current location and no overlap is evident.

Authority to File: A complete application for transfer was received from Julana Hedt on April 30, 2018. The water right and the entire place of use (POU) is owned by Julana Hedt or Paul Hedt Jr. as confirmed by recent Lemhi County records. The current and proposed POD is on Fred Snook's property. The application states that the arrangement for access to the POD will remain the same. There are no ownership concerns.

Water Right Validity: Satellite imagery within the past five years shows that the POU for the above listed water right has been irrigated so there are no concerns of forfeiture.

Injury to Other Water Rights: The POD for water right 74-405 authorizing diversion from a separate source, springs tributary to Pratt Creek, is separate from the diversion directly from Pratt Creek under 74-16038. There is no apparent injury through the proposed change since there are no other PODs from Pratt Creek between the identified current location and the proposed new location. The transfer will be advertised and comments will be requested from the watermaster of Water District 74F to assess whether injury to other water rights is anticipated as a result of this transfer.

Enlargement of Use: This transfer only proposes a change in POD location. There is no overlap at the POU. No enlargement of use is expected.

Local Public interest: There are no apparent issues with local public interest. IDWR will advertise the transfer. The POD is located in Water Districts 74F, Pratt Creek and comments will be requested from the watermaster.

Beneficial Use/Conservation of Water Resources: This transfer appears to be consistent with the conservation of water resources in Idaho.

Effect on Economy the Local Area: No adverse impacts are anticipated.

Effect on Agricultural Base of the Local Area: The transfer shows no negative impacts on the local agriculture.

Review of the application finds there is no clear inconsistency with criteria set forth in Section 42-222 Idaho Code preventing processing of this application.

RE: Application for Transfer No. 82326

Dear Applicant:

The Idaho Department of Water Resources (Department) received your Application for Transfer of Water Right 74-16038. Initial review of the application finds that the proposed point of diversion (POD) described on the application in Township (T) 20N, Range (R) 23E, SESW quarter-quarter of Section (S) 11 is a different location than the one shown in your attached map. Based on the map and the location of Pratt Creek, it appears as though you intended that the point of diversion be changed to T20N, R23E, S11, SENE.

If you intended to change the point of diversion to this location, you will need to amend your application. I have enclosed a copy of your application for you to make any desired changes. Please review number 5, make any desired changes and initial and date these changes.

Also while processing the application, it was found that both Julana and Paul Hedt Jr. are listed as the water right owners; however, the address listed for Paul is different than Julana's. I have attached a change of address form to make updates if needed.

I will withhold processing of your application until June 8, 2018, to allow you time to return the requested documents. You may submit a written request if you need additional time to provide the information. The Department can grant additional time upon a showing of good cause for the delay.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (208) 287-4912.

The Upper Salmon Basin Watershed Program is assisting Julana Hedt in the attached application for a change in POD for water right 74-16038. The existing POD is in a location which will become dry due to a restoration project which will be completed in summer-fall 2018 by Fred Snook and the Lemhi Soil and Water Conservation District. Both the existing and proposed POD location are on Fred Snook's property. Moving the POD upstream will also allow WR 74-16038 to be piped into a screened gravity fed system to pods on the current POU.

NRCS is completing the design for the new irrigation system.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
