Jay D. Bowman

(July 17, 1943 - June 30, 2017)

Jay Daniel Bowman, 73, of Salmon, passed away on June 30, 2017 with his loving wife by his side.

Jay came into this world feet first. He was welcomed by his parents Chester and Lucille and his big sister Karen. They lived at Sandy Creek, and Jay attended school in Salmon.

In 1963, he married Lois Verline Nebeker. They lived in Salmon, later moving to Downey, CA., for 2 months. Returning to Sandy Creek, they work on the family ranch.

Son Daniel Jay Bowman was born in 1969. Daughter Kristy Sue joined the family in 1973. Jay was lovingly proud of his children.

The family moved to Kennewick, WA, where Jay was employed by Rockwell Co. for 4 years at the Hanford Nuclear Site.

Jay was a well-respected husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, friend and neighbor. Lois and Jay enjoyed 53 years of marriage together.

Jay was always well received with great respect from his family, friends and community. Jay was a wonderful steward of the land and gentle with animals. He enjoyed operating his heavy equipment.

Jay's sister Karen writes: "Jay, I am going to miss your dry sense of humor. Your outstanding mechanical abilities were a huge help to many of us. The constant quest to learn new things was part of your daily routine. When we referred to you as a self-made man, you described it as homeschooling yourself. The honesty and caring you displayed in your relationships with everyone will be remembered, always. Rest in peace little brother."

Jay leaves his wife Lois Verlene Bowman; his son, Daniel Jay (Gail) Bowman; and daughter, Kristy Sue (Bryan) Cousens; sister, Karen (Marion) Hill; 3 grandchildren; and 1 great-grandson; several nieces and nephews.

A private memorial with family will take place at a later date.
