on their lands and known as Brim Springs or Brim Creek, being about Five inches in amount.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that in case of insufficiency of water to supply all parties, the entire volume is to be devoted to and used by the appropriators who are first in point of time.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that all water diverted from said streams by any party hereto shall be diverted through a box or flume so arranged and constructed as to permit of the water so diverted being measured under a four inch pressure.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the amount of water herein decreed to the several parties aforesaid shall be measured as follows, The owner or owners of each ditch shall construct a box or flume of two inch plank sixteen and one half feet long and of sufficient width and height to carry the amount of water herein awarded to such parties, in a substantial manner and place the same at the head gate of such ditch upon permanent and substantial supports the lower end of said flume to be  $\frac{3}{8}$  of an inch lower than the upper end, the water to run through said box without any obstruction, the water in said box not to be at any time a greater depth than nine inches at the head gate in said box or flume, and that no person or persons, shall receive or divert any of the waters of said Marsh Creek or its tributaries except through said box or flume, the amount in inches under a four inch pressure to which each party is entitled, to be indicated by the number of square inches in the cross section of the water measured eight and one quarter feet below the head gate in said flume.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that each and every party to this action and his successors and assigns is hereby perpetually enjoined from diverting or interfering with any of the water of said Marsh Creek or any of its tributaries except in the quantity and in the order and in the manner in which they and each of them are herein decreed to be entitled thereto.

Dated March 21st. 1892.
