This Deed of Trust is re-recorded to correct an error in the description.

TOGETHER WITH the rents, issues and profits thereof, SUBJECT, HOWEVER, to the right, power and authority hereinafter given to and conferred upon Beneficiary to collect and apply such rents, issues and profits.

For the Purpose of securing payment of the indebtedness evidenced by a promissory note, of even date herewith, executed by Grantor in the sum of Forty Three Thousand and no/100-----Dollars, ($ 43,000.00), final payment due 10/1/2001

by the Beneficiary herein to the Grantor herein, or any or either of them, while record owner of present interest, for any purpose, and of any note, deed or other instrument representing such further loans, advances or expenditures together with interest on all such sums at the rate therein provided. Provided, however, that the making of such further loans, advances or expenditures shall be optional with the Beneficiary, and provided further, that it is the express intention of the parties to this Deed of Trust that it shall stand as continuing security until paid for all such indebtedness together with interest thereon.

A. To protect the security of this Deed of Trust, Grantor agrees:

1. To keep said property in good condition and repair; not to remove or demolish any building thereon; to complete or repair promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon and to pay when due all claims for labor performed and materials furnished thereon; to comply with all laws affecting said property or requiring any alterations or improvements to be made thereon not to encumber or permit any third party to encumber, either or permit any use upon said property in violation of laws to cultivate, vend, deliver, transport, possess and do all other acts which from the character or use of said property may be reasonably necessary, the specific covenants herein not controlling the general.

2. To provide, maintain and deliver to Beneficiary fire insurance satisfactory to and with loss payable to Beneficiary. The amount indicated under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by Beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as Beneficiary may determine, or at option of Beneficiary the entire amount so collected or any part thereof may be returned to Grantor. Upon application of Beneficiary not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

3. To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum, in any such action or proceeding in which Beneficiary or Trustee may appear.

4. To pay, at least on days but no infrequently all taxes and assessments affecting said property, when due, all encumbrances, charges and liens, with interest, on said property or any part thereof, which appear to be prior or superior hereto; all costs, fees and expenses of this Trust. In addition to the payments due to beneficiaries with the terms of the note hereby secured the Grantor shall at the option, and at demand of the Beneficiary, pay each month 1/12 of the estimated annual taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, maintenance and other charges upon the property, nevertheless in trust for Grantor's use and benefit and for the payment by Beneficiary of any such items when due. Grantor's failure to pay shall constitute a default under this trust.

5. To pay immediately and without demand all sums expended by Beneficiary or Trustee pursuant to the provisions hereof, with interest from date of expenditure at eight per cent per annum.

6. Should Grantor fail to make any payment or to do any act as herein provided, then Beneficiary or Trustee, but without obligation as to do and without notice to or demand upon Grantor and without releasing Grantor from any obligation hereof, may: make or do the same in such manner and to such extent as either may deem necessary to protect the security hereof; Beneficiary or Trustee being authorized to enter upon said property for such purposes; appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; pay, purchase, contest or complete any encumbrance, charge or lien which in the judgment of either appears to be prior or superior hereto, and, in exercising any such power, or in enforcing this Deed of Trust by judicial foreclosure, pay necessary expenses, employ counsel and pay his reasonable fees.

B. It is mutually agreed that:

1. Any award of damages in connection with any condemnation for public use or injury to said property or any part thereof is hereby assigned and shall be paid to Beneficiary who may apply or release such moneys received by him in the same manner and with the same effect as above provided for disposition of proceeds of fire other insurance.

2. By accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, Beneficiary does not waive his right either to require prompt payment when due or all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure to pay.

3. At any time or from time to time, without liability therefor and without notice, upon written request of Beneficiary and presentation of this Deed and said note for endorsement, and without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, Trustee may: recover all or any part of said property; consent to the making of any map or plat thereof; join in granting any easement thereon; or join in any extension agreement or any agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof.

4. Upon written request of Beneficiary stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender of this Deed and said note to Trustee for cancellation and retention and upon payment of its fees, Trustee shall recover, without warranty, the property then held hereunder. The right to any recovery may be exercised under this deed of trust of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. The parties in such recovery may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto."

5. As additional security, Grantor hereby gives to and confers upon Beneficiary the right, power and authority, during the continuance of this Trust, to collect the rents, issues and profits of said property, reserving unto Grantor the right, prior to any default by Grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such rents, issues and profits as they become due and payable. Upon any such default, Beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent, or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in his own name and for or otherwise collect such rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, any sums and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, first to the satisfaction of all creditors of Grantor. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collecting of such rents, issues and profits and the application thereof to all debts, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

1. Upon default by Grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, all sums secured hereby shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the Beneficiary. In the event of default, Beneficiary shall exercise or cause the Trustee to exercise a written notice of such default and of his election to cause to be sold the herein described property to satisfy the obligations hereof, and shall cause such notice to be recorded in the office of the recorder of each county wherein said real property or some part thereof is situated.

Notice of sale having been given as then required by law, and not less than the time then required by law having elapsed, Trustee, without demand on Grantor, shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by it in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels and in such order as it may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty express or implied. The recitals in such deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truth of the same. Any person, including Grantor, Trustee, or Beneficiary, may purchase at such sale.

After deducting all costs, fees and expenses of Trustee and of this Trust, including cost of evidence of title and reasonable counsel fees in connection with sale, Trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of all sums expended under the terms hereof, not then repaid, with accrued interest at eight per cent per annum, all other moneys then secured hereby, and the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

2. This Deed applies to, inure to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term Beneficiary shall mean the holder and owner of the note secured hereby, or, if the note has been pledged, the pledgee thereof. In this deed, whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

3. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other Deed of Trust or of any action or proceeding in which Grantor, Beneficiary or Trustee shall be a party unless brought by Trustee.

4. In the event of dissolution or resignation of the Trustee, the Beneficiary may substitute a trustee or trustees to execute the trust hereby created, and when any such substitution has been filed for record in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the property herein described is situated, it shall be conclusive evidence of the appointment of such trustee or trustees, and such new trustee or trustees shall succeed to all of the powers and duties of the trustee or trustees named herein.

Request is hereby made that a copy of any Notice of Default and a copy of any Notice of Sale hereunder be mailed to the Grantor at his address hereinbefore set forth.

TOGETHER WITH the rents, issues and profits thereof, SUBJECT, HOWEVER, to the right, power and authority hereinafter given to and conferred upon Beneficiary to collect and apply such rents, issues and profits.

For the Purpose of Securing payment of the indebtedness evidenced by a promissory note, of even date herewith, executed by Grantor in the sum of Forty Three Thousand and no/100-----Dollars, ($ 43,000.00), final payment due 10/1/2011 and to secure payment of all such further sums as may hereafter be loaned or advanced by the Beneficiary herein to the Grantor herein, or any or either of them, while record owner of present interest, for any purpose, and of any notes, drafts or other instruments representing such further loans, advances or expenditures together with interest on all such sums at the rate therefor provided. Provided, however, that the making of such further loans, advances or expenditures shall be optional with the Beneficiary, and provided, further, that it is the express intention of the parties to this Deed of Trust that it shall stand as continuing security until paid for all such advances together with interest thereon.

A. To protect the security of this Deed of Trust, Grantor agrees:

1. To keep said property in good condition and repair; not to remove or demolish any building thereon; to complete or restore promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon and to pay when due all claims for labor performed and materials furnished therefor; to comply with all laws affecting said property or requiring any alterations or improvements to be made thereon; not to commit or permit waste thereof; not to commit, suffer or permit any act upon said property in violation of law; to cultivate, irrigate, fertilize, fumigate, prune and do all other acts which from the character or use of said property may be reasonably necessary, the specific enumerations herein not excluding the general.

2. To provide, maintain and deliver to Beneficiary fire insurance satisfactory to and with loss payable to Beneficiary. The amount collected under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by Beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as Beneficiary may determine, or at option of Beneficiary the entire amount so collected or any part thereof may be released to Grantor. Such application or release shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

3. To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum, in any such action or proceeding in which Beneficiary or Trustee may appear.

4. To pay, at least ten days before delinquency all taxes and assessments affecting said property, when due, all encumbrances, charges and liens, with interest, on said property or any part thereof, which appear to be prior or superior hereto; all costs, fees and expenses of this Trust. In addition to the payments due in accordance with the terms of the note hereby secured the Grantor shall at the option, and on demand of the Beneficiary, pay each month 1/12 of the estimated annual taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, maintenance and other charges upon the property, nevertheless in trust for Grantor's use and benefit and for the payment by Beneficiary of any such items when due. Grantor's failure so to pay shall constitute a default under this trust.

5. To pay immediately and without demand all sums expended by Beneficiary or Trustee pursuant to the provisions hereof, with interest from date of expenditure at eight per cent per annum.

6. Should Grantor fail to make any payment or to do any act as herein provided, then Beneficiary or Trustee, but without obligation so to do and without notice to or demand upon Grantor and without releasing Grantor from any obligation hereof, may make or do the same in such manner and to such extent as either may deem necessary to protect the security hereof. Beneficiary or Trustee being authorized to enter upon said property for such purposes; appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; pay, purchase, contest or compromise any encumbrance, charge or lien which in the judgment of either appears to be prior or superior hereto; and, in exercising any such powers, or in enforcing this Deed of Trust by judicial foreclosure, pay necessary expenses, employ counsel and pay his reasonable fees.

B. It is mutually agreed that:

1. Any award of damages in connection with any condemnation for public use of or injury to said property or any part thereof is hereby assigned and shall be paid to Beneficiary who may apply or release such moneys received by him in the same manner and with the same effect as above provided for disposition of proceeds of fire or other insurance.

2. By accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, Beneficiary does not waive his right either to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure so to pay.

3. At any time or from time to time, without liability therefor and without notice, upon written request of Beneficiary and presentation of this Deed and said note for endorsement, and without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, Trustee may: reconvey all or any part of said property; consent to the making of any map or plat thereof; join in granting any easement thereon; or join in any extension agreement or any agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof.

4. The recitals in any reconveyance executed under this deed of trust of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. The grantee in such reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto."

5. As additional security, Grantor hereby gives to and confers upon Beneficiary the right, power and authority, during the continuance of these Trusts, to collect the rents, issues and profits of said property, reserving unto Grantor the right, prior to any default by Grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such rents, issues and profits as they become due and payable. Upon any such default, Beneficiary may at any time without notice either in person, by agent, or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, and in his own name sue for or otherwise collect such rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as Beneficiary may determine. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits and the application thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

6. Upon default by Grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, all sums secured hereby shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the Beneficiary. In the event of default, Beneficiary shall execute or cause the Trustee to execute a written notice of such default and of his election to cause to be sold the herein described property to satisfy the obligations hereof, and shall cause such notice to be recorded in the office of the recorder of each county wherein said real property or some part thereof is situated.

Notice of sale having been given as then required by law, and not less than the time then required by law having elapsed, Trustee, without demand on Grantor, shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by it in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels and in such order as it may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at time of sale. Trustee shall deliver to the purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty express or implied. The recitals in such deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including Grantor, Trustee, or Beneficiary, may purchase at such sale.

After deducting all costs, fees and expenses of Trustee and of this Trust, including cost of evidence of title and reasonable counsel fees in connection with sale, Trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of all sums expended under the terms hereof, not then repaid, with accrued interest at eight per cent per annum; all other sums then secured hereby; and the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

7. This Deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term Beneficiary shall mean the holder and owner of the note secured hereby; or, if the note has been pledged, the pledgee thereof. In this deed, whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

8. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other Deed of Trust or of any action or proceeding in which Grantor, Beneficiary or Trustee shall be a party unless brought by Trustee.

9. In the event of dissolution or resignation of the Trustee, the Beneficiary may substitute a trustee or trustees to execute the trust hereby created, and when any such substitution has been filed for record in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the property herein described is situated, it shall be conclusive evidence of the appointment of such trustee or trustees, and such new trustee or trustees shall succeed to all of the powers and duties of the trustee or trustees named herein.

Request is hereby made that a copy of any Notice of Default and a copy of any Notice of Sale hereunder be mailed to the Grantor at his address hereinbefore set forth.

Regan and Sharie,

I had emailed you the Notice of Change in Water Right forms that I was going to submit to the IDWR. I asked if you had a copy of the deed from Moore to you. You indicated that the Trust Deed and the Trust Note that you had previously provided us were the only documents you remember getting from Moore related to the property. That seemed odd to me and I had Mandy get in contact with Caribou County and see what it had recorded related to the property. She has done so and Caribou County has confirmed that they don't have any documents recorded between you and Moore. The assessor's office was sending tax notices to you because of some sort of contract between you and Moore. Nothing related to the transfer of the property to you has been recorded.

This does not seem right to me. You gave me a copy of a Trust Deed signed by you in June 2014 and a Trust Note executed by you and Moore in June 2013. I haven't seen a copy of any other contract.

If Moore is selling the property to you and using a deed of trust to secure the amount you owe him, here is how it normally would be working. First, he would deed the property to you, usually with a warranty deed. You then own the property. Second, at the same time he does that, you would sign a note to him evidencing how much money you owe him and the terms under which you will repay it (interest, monthly payments, etc.). Third, you will then provide him a trust deed as security guaranteeing the note. The trust deed functions just like a mortgage. If you don't pay the note, it allows him to take the property back.

The point is that this all starts with the property being transferred from him to you. The property then serves as collateral for your debt. In many cases that debt is owed to a bank who financed the purchase. In your case, Moore is carrying the note, so it is owed to him. However, as far as we can tell, it appears that Moore never transferred the property to you. Given that, your signing of the deed of trust makes no sense. The deed of trust is you putting the property up as security against your note – but you don't own the property so you can't do anything with it.

I am also concerned that nothing related to the transaction has been recorded. Recording deeds, mortgages, and other documents related to land is a big deal. If Moore went out and sold the property right now to a third party, that third party could potentially claim that they owned it and not you since there is no record of Moore transferring the land to you. Similarly, if a creditor of Moore were to obtain a judgment against him, that creditor might attempt to satisfy the judgment by taking and selling his land. The creditor would have no way to know that that land is yours, not Moore's.

I understood you to say that Moore prepared all of the documents related to the transfer. It may be that he just didn't understand or got bad advice from someone. He may have assumed that he should retain title to the property until you pay the full amount owed and then he deeds it to you. In any event, this isn't a particularly difficult problem to fix. Moore would need to deed you the property, you could then sign a deed of trust to Moore as security for the note you signed in 2013. Both deeds should be recorded. The note does not need to be recorded. Alternatively, if you both wanted, you could agree to cancel that first note and sign one that accurately reflects the status of payments as of now. As I said, if Moore is agreeable, this is pretty easy to fix.

It may be that there is some aspect of your agreement with Moore that I am not understanding. If that is the case, let me know. Even if there is something I am missing that makes sense of these documents, it is still worrisome that nothing has been recorded.

I don't recommend trying to change the name on the water rights until this is addressed. I could try to submit the documents to change the water rights to the IDWR and just attach the deed of trust signed by you. However, I don't think the department will do it with that. The department is sophisticated enough regarding land transfers that I would expect it to say that it needs the document transferring the property to you. We don't have any such document yet.

If you would like to discuss this, let me know when. Tomorrow will be difficult for me, but I am free most of the day Friday. Please pick a time so that I can calendar it and make sure we don't miss each other.

This is a lot different than my conversation with him. I am curious as to how this paper work showed up soon after I meet with them. And second. James told me the water would be split according to acres affectively watered when used out of a ditch. So for 2 acres for my self is not accurate it should be closer to 7. Because shaw is watering above the original ditch. Not sure if that is addressable. No matter what we need to get the rights in my name. The fresh water spring we need to clarify. There is three houses that use that water. I own two and no one lives in the other. I am curious if the water right of .06 is for each house or just total of spring. It is in the paper work I left you. If it is spring only then we need to address who owns it and who doesn't and usage. Thanks once we know for sure the rights need to be transferred to my name. And then let's change point of diversion. Is there a way to use or rent more water? And which creek is Steve's creek? There is two through my property and no clarification. In the other creek is there any water rights for use? And how do I go about making sure I have water to use when Shaws have a culinary line and sprinkler line and you can only see some of use? Shaws can dry up both creeks. I have been here a couple years and they dry one completely and have dried the other one once. Thanks again.

Regan,

Here is the proposed email to James Cefalo. Please make sure that my facts are correct and let me know if you have any suggestions. If it is acceptable and accurate, I will get it sent.

Hyrum

James,

Regan and Sharie Phillips have asked us to help them addressing some water right issues that have arisen regarding their property near Grace. The mailing address for the property is 1670 Roper Lane, Grace, Idaho 83241. The legal description is attached.

I understand that Regan spoke to you some time ago seeking clarification regarding water rights. His understanding was that you indicated that there was some uncertainty as to the status of the rights and that he might need to take some action to get clear title to the rights. He is unclear as to the precise advice you offered.

Phillips purchased the property in 2013, from Wilson and Cloris Moore. The Moore's represented to Phillips that the property had water rights for 1.6 cfs. However, the only right I can find in the Moore's name is 13-4102, a claim to a domestic right from a spring identified as a tributary to Steve's Creek. Although it isn't clear, it looks like that claim has been accepted and that the department now identifies 13-4102 as a domestic right with a priority date of 6/1/41. Also, 13-622, and 13-7917, are not in Moore's name, but include Phillip's property within the their POU.

I understand from speaking with Regan that there may be some confusion regarding the POD and the location of Steve's Creek. Apparently the creek's both to the north and the south of Regan's property are identified as Steve's Creek. They join up shortly after leaving Regan's property.

Regan is looking to our firm to give him direction on the status of water on his property and what actions he needs to take regarding the rights. Before we advise him regarding what he ought to do, we wanted to make sure we understood what, if any, concerns the department had regarding the situation.

If you think a telephone call would be beneficial, or have any questions, please don't hesitate to call or suggest a time and I can give you a call.

Thanks,

Regan and Sharie,

You have been very patient. James responded some time ago. The delay in getting it to you was mine and I apologize. Here is his response.

Hyrum,

I can't remember speaking to the Phillips, but my memory is not the best. I will provide you the information I could find.

Prior to 1982, Leo and Betty Roper owned a large portion of the ground around and including the Phillips parcel. The Roper property included all of water right 13-622 from Steves Creek, which authorized the diversion of 1.60 cfs from the creek and the irrigation of 80 acres. In 1982, Ropers sold most of their property to Shaw Land & Livestock. The sale included all but 0.04 cfs (2 acres) of water right 13-622. I've attached a copy of the 1982 deed. (The handwriting in red is from Rob Harris. This deed was submitted in 2014 as part of an ownership change filed by Rob Harris on behalf of Shaw Land & Livestock. The purchase and sale agreement can be found in the online water right file for 13-7917.)

As a result of the ownership change filed by Shaw Land & Livestock in 2014, water right 13-622 was split into 13-7917 (Shaw) and 13-622 (remaining portion – Roper). Consistent with the warranty deed and purchase/sale agreement, Shaw ended up with most of the water right (1.56 cfs, 78 acres). Shaw needs to file a transfer to clarify the location of the 78 irrigated acres.

In 1998 Leo and Betty Roper sold their remaining land (the parcel now owned by Phillips) to Wilson and Cloris Moore. The deed between Roper and Moore specifically referenced the Warranty Deed between Roper and Shaw.

I believe the Phillips could file an ownership change for all of water right 13-4102, which was specifically included in the Roper to Moore deed. Phillips could also file an ownership change for all of water right 13-622 (0.04 cfs, 2 acres). The Phillips should consider filing a transfer application to better define the 2 acre place of use and point of diversion.

The other water rights in the area do not appear to be appurtenant to the Phillips parcel (13-675, 13-7372). The Roper to Shaw deed and Roper to Moore deed refer to another water claim to a fresh water spring in the N1/2 of the NW1/4 of Section 20. I don't see that this water use is recorded in any water right. It can likely be claimed in an adjudication if one commences in the Bear River drainage.

Let me know if you have any follow-up questions.

James

As I recall you describing your first conversation, this appears to be quite different from that earlier conversation. Unless you see a problem with doing so, my recommendation would be to get those rights transferred to your name. If you would like, we can prepare that paperwork for you. Then, even if you need to address point of diversion or place of use issues, at least you are doing so with water rights in your name and appurtenant to your property in the eyes of the Department.

I would then consider what makes the most sense as far as a place of use and point of diversion. Then, if necessary I would ask for a transfer of the place of use/point of diversion, to match what would actually work on your property. Regarding 13-1402, it was mentioned in the deed to Roper to Moore, but is not mentioned in the deed from Moore to you. I do not have anything in my notes that indicates if that was intentional or not. Unless a water right is intentionally not transferred, and both parties understand that the right is not going with the land, water rights are transferred with the land even if they are not mentioned in the deed.

If I have missed something or forgotten some fact that we discussed that impact this analysis, please let me know. It may be that we need to contact James with some follow up questions. If so, please give me a call or shot me an email to discuss.

Dear Water Right Holder(s):

The Department acknowledges the receipt of correspondence changing ownership of the above referenced water right(s) to you. The Department has modified its records to reflect this change in ownership and has enclosed a computer-generated report for your records.

Updating the ownership record for a water right does not reconfirm the validity of the right. When processing an ownership change notice, the department does not review the history of water use to determine if the right has been forfeited through five years or more of non-use. To read more about water right forfeiture, including how to protect a water right from forfeiture, please see § 42-222 and §42-223, Idaho Code.

Please note that the ownership of water rights 13-624, 13-675, and 13-7357 was not updated. Your property is located in Township 11S, Range 40E, Section 19, NWNE. Water right 13-624 is appurtenant to land located in Township 11S, Range 40E, Section 21, water right 13-675 is appurtenant to land located in Township 11S, Range 40E, Section 17 and water right 13-7357 is appurtenant to land located in Township 11S, Range 40E, Section 20, NWNW. Since these water rights were not updated, a refund of $75 has been requested and will be sent to you under separate cover from the State Controller's Office within 10 days.

Also note that as of July 1, 1996, water right owners are required to report any change of water right ownership and any change of mailing address of the owner of a water right, to the Department. Notice of the change must be provided to the Department within 120 days of the change. Water right forms are available from any office of the Department, or at www.idwr.idaho.gov.
