Hi Terry,

We sent correspondence to the mailing address listed on the application (which is c/o Bill Doramus on Howe Road), rather than to Greg Shaw (who signed the application). As I read our Rules of Procedure (IDAPA 37.01.01), specifically Rule 202, Eureka Ditch Company (a corporation) can be represented at a hearing or prehearing by "an officer, duly authorized employee, or attorney".

So, no problem with Greg representing the applicant at the prehearing conference.

Hope that helps,

Nick.

Nick –

Regarding the prehearing conference for the Eureka Ditch Co Transfer, the notice was sent to Bill Doramus who is Vice President. However, Greg Shaw is the President (see below) and would like to represent the Ditch Company at the prehearing conference. Is that OK?

Also, I assume that Eureka does not need an attorney to represent them, at least at the conference stage. Is that correct?
