Gary,
Charlie Honsinger has requested that you not issue your decision on the City of Meridian exception's until after he returns from a month long trip. See email below.
IDAPA 730 provides:

The agency head (or designee) will issue a final order within fifty-six (56) days of receipt of the written briefs or oral argument, whichever is later, unless waived by the parties or for good cause shown.

Unless you feel strongly about documenting it through an order, I can email Charlie back and say that IDWR interprets his email as a request to waive the 56 deadline per rule 730 and that you will issue the order on exceptions after July 5.

Dear Garrick:

As we discussed earlier today, pursuant to this email, I am requesting that IDWR not issue a response to the Exceptions to Order Denying Petition for Reconsideration that I filed on May 5, 2016 until July 5, 2016. I understand that the Director is required to address such exceptions within 56 days of their filing, but in this case, as I will be out of the country for an extended time, it will be helpful to me to have the decision issued after I return.

Please acknowledge your receipt of this request and your compliance with it (if you are so able) via return email.

Thank you.

Charlie
