Subject: Applications for California Ditch Point of Diversion Transfer

Dear Mr. Cephalo,

Water rights owned by Big Creek Ranch LLC and Flying Joseph Ranch LLC share a point of diversion from Big Creek, which is a tributary of the Pahsimeroi River. The point of diversion described by decrees for these rights indicates a location on a channel that originates on Big Creek. The actual location of the diversion from Big Creek is located on property owned by Northwest Fidelity Trust (the Trust). Please see the attached map provided by SPF Water Engineering.

Big Creek Ranch and Flying Joseph Ranch recently signed a document titled "Consent Order and Agreement" (the Agreement) to resolve a Notice of Violation issued by IDWR in 2015. The Agreement requires that Big Creek Ranch and Flying Joseph Ranch file transfer applications for their water rights to add the location of the Big Creek point of diversion on the Trust's property. The Trust is aware of these applications and does not object to IDWR processing the applications and issuing approved transfers authorizing the correction as to the point of diversion for water rights 73-2102, 73-32, 73-10023, 73-10041, and 73-12110.

Sincerely,

Jim Cain, Trustee

MEMORANDUM

Date: May 26, 2016
To: Transfer 80878
From: Michele Edl
Re: Points of Injection & Re diversion

Water diverted from Big Creek is conveyed through the California Ditch SW toward the Pahsimeroi River. The ditch then injects that Big Creek water into a flood plain area that may be Goldburg Creek or may be the Pahsimeroi River. I have confirmed that the PLSS address for the point-of-injection is correct. However the target waterway is unclear.

This transfer acts on four water rights and all four rights have the same point-of-injection. Rights 73-10041 and 73-12110 came into the transfer with an explanatory condition which identified Goldburg Creek as the target waterway for the injected water and the Pahsimeroi River as the waterway from which the injected water was rediverted. The other two rights were silent about the waterway names for both the injection and the re-diversion points.

A comparison of the injection and rediversion points with the National Hydrography Dataset (NHD) identifies the waterway at the injection site as Goldburg Creek.

There are three points of rediversion for the four rights acted upon by this transfer. A close review of imagery and the NHD layer indicates that all four rights may also be rediverted from Goldburg Creek. Please refer to the attached screen-shot.

The point of rediversion for 73-10023 is coincident with a GPS point identified as P-19, Pahsimeroi River, But aerial photography shows Goldburg Creek and the Pahsimeroi River are closely braided in that area. The other two points of rediversion appear to be best described as from Goldburg Creek.

As a result, the four rights will now have conditions which identify both the injection and the rediversion waterways.

Michele –

In both cases (Flying Joseph Ranch 80878, and Big Creek Ranch 80895) the intention is to add a point of diversion. The existing point of diversion, point(s) of injection, and point(s) of rediversion do not change.

Subject: xfer injection & rediversion pts

Roxanne Brown,

I have nearly completed the work on Flying Joseph Ranch's transfers 80878 and 80895.

Before they get prepped for advertizing, I need to confirm that Flying Joseph Ranch intends to keep the points-of-injection and points-of-rediversion.

Both applications for transfer list points-of-diversion only. But all of the rights which are acted on by the two transfers have injection and rediversion points too. Flying Joseph Ranch's intent for those I and R points isn't as clear as it needs to be.

Please confirm that Flying Joseph Ranch intends to keep the injection and rediversion points in addition to the existing points of diversion and the requested new point of diversion.

Thanks.

Michele Edl

Re: Review & Evaluation of Sufficiency of Information

Authority to File: According to available Lemhi County taxlot information, the proposed POD is within land owned by Northwest Fidelity Trust.

Water rights 73-32, 73-10023, 73-10041 and 73-12110 are in the name of Flying Joseph Ranch, LLC. ISOS lists Flying Joseph Ranch, LLC as #W 38351 with a Seattle WA address. Joseph Clark is listed as a member and he signed the application.

The application package included a copy of a letter addressed to James Cefalo, (manager, IDWR Eastern Region) from Jim Cain (trustee, Northwest Fidelity Trust). The letter confirms that both Flying Joseph Ranch and Big Creek Ranch, LLC are authorized to use a point of diversion on the trust property.

Water Right Validity: SRBA decree for 73-32 was issued on March 12, 2010 to Lyndella A Bauchman and Stephen G Bauchman of Las Vegas NV. IDWR recognized a change in water right ownership from the Bauchmans to Flying Joseph Ranch in 2012.

SRBA decree for 73-10023 was issued on January 31, 2011 to Flying Joseph Ranch LLC.

SRBA decrees for 73-10041 and 73-12110 were issued on September 30, 2010 to Flying Joseph Ranch LLC.

Forfeiture is not an issue at this time but the right holder should take some action before the end of 2016 in order to preserve the full value of these rights.

Injury to Other Water Rights: The proposed POD is an existing but unauthorized diversion from Big Creek. It is approximately 0.75 miles upstream on Big Creek from the authorized POD which is identified by tag A0013415 and SpatialDataID 359750.

This proposed POD is also the proposed second POD for Big Creek Ranch water right 73-2102. See transfer 80895.

Between the first POD and this new second POD are the diversions for junior priority BLM stockwater right 73-11503.

These water rights are within the Wild & Scenic Watershed for the Salmon River and the watershed for the Pahsimeroi River minimum streamflow right 73-07045. As a consequence, this application will be subject to scrutiny by other agencies.

Enlargement of Use: No enlargement is anticipated. The transfer approval will limit the rights to the standard diversion rate and volume for the area and the rights will be under watermaster control. Measurement and control devices were agreed upon in the Consent Order and Agreement.

A review of aerial photography from the period after the SRBA decree dates for each of the above rights shows some regular irrigation but not as the decrees described it. Some acres have been idled for at least 5 years while other acres have been put under pivot irrigation without the authorization of a transfer. An additional transfer is needed to correct the POU's.

Local Public Interest: Review staff has no information to suggest that this application is inconsistent with the local public interest.

Beneficial Use/Conservation of Water Resources: The transfer appears consistent with the conservation of water resources in Idaho.

Effect on Economy the Local Area: No negative effect on the local economy is anticipated.

Effect on Agricultural Base of the Local Area: No negative effect on the agricultural base of the local area is anticipated.

Review of the application finds there is no clear inconsistency with criteria set forth in Section 42-222 Idaho Code preventing processing of this application.
