To Whom It May Concern:

Having been in contact with your office during the past year, I was pleased to have a favorable experience at all times. Please note that your employee, Ashley Newby, has done an "outstanding" job every time I needed help or information. She has gone far and above the "extra mile" in making sure questions and concerns were answered in a very timely manner. She has been an example of one who truly cares and wants to help the public be successful in getting answers and help to their questions. I want to acknowledge her and hope that if there is any "bonus" for outstanding work...I would nominate Ashley Newby. It is my hope that this message gets to the administrator who oversees the program so that she can be formally acknowledged for her work at the IDWR. Sincerely...Pam M. Warthen
