PROOF DEFICIENCY LETTER

RE: Permit Nos. 63-32125 & 63-32126

Dear Permit Holder(s):

The Department received the proofs of beneficial use (proof) forms you submitted for the above referenced permits. I am returning the forms to you because information provided on the forms is not sufficient or incomplete. Please address the following items on the forms:

- The address listed on the proof form for permit no. 63-32125 does not match the address listed on the assignment of permit that the Department just processed. Please update the address to reflect the current mailing address. The license examination fee for this permit should have been $100.00 based on the authorized diversion rate of 0.23 cfs (cubic feet per second).
- The address listed on the proof form for permit no. 63-32126 does not match the address listed on the assignment of permit that the Department just processed. Please update the address to reflect the current mailing address. The license examination fee for this permit should have been $100.00 based on the authorized diversion volume of 20.4 af (acre feet). Item no. 6 of this proof form is blank. Please fill in item no. 6.

A $50.00 license examination fee was submitted with each of the proof forms. Please submit the remaining $100.00 of the required fees when resubmitting both proof forms. Please resubmit the completed &/or corrected forms along with the additional fees requested. I will hold this matter for (15) days from the date of this letter. To avoid the possibility of your permits lapsing, please respond within the 15 days allotted.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me at (208) 287-4945.

Sincerely,

Darla Block
