Re: Extension of time to avoid forfeiture applications

Shirley Barer, PO Box 478, Bellevue, ID, has filed five applications for Extension of Time to Avoid Forfeiture. The associated water rights are from the Big Wood River for irrigation of 5 acres. The water rights were decreed in 2010. The water rights are as follows: 37-21856, priority date 3/24/1883 for 0.080 cfs; 37-21873, priority date 7/10/1884 for 0.005 cfs; 37-21890, priority date 9/18/1885 for 0.050 cfs; 37-21907, priority date 6/12/1886 for 0.005 cfs; & 37-21924, priority date 6/15/1891 for 0.130 cfs. The applicant has not established an irrigation system to use the surface water and is asking for additional time to complete the system. The five water rights are appurtenant to property located in the Bellevue Farms Subdivision approximately 0.6 miles east and 1.6 miles south of the intersection of Hwy 75 and Gannett Picabo Road, south of Bellevue.
