Re: Extension of Time to Avoid Forfeiture

Kristin Moore from Rocky Mountain submitted applications for extensions of time to avoid forfeiture for water rights 22-7347 and 22-13210 on behalf of Teton Valley Golf Association. The Department received these applications on December 15, 2014. A quit claim deed from Teton Valley Golf to TR Golf LLC, accompanied the applications. Each application listed TR Golf, LLC as the applicant. Bruce Hollis, a member of TR Golf, listed on the Secretary of State's annual report, signed each of the applications. On February 4, 2015 I sent an email to Kristin requesting that her clients submit a change of ownership for each water right.

On February 5, 2015 Kristin responded that they are still working toward the resolution of the water right ownership. She requested that we continue with the extension. (see attachment). According to the application the land appurtenant to these water rights was developed into a subdivision with many open spaces and golf course. Much of the land is still in development; however, much of the land is vacant and not irrigated. They have irrigated the golf course and will continue to irrigate it under these rights.

We will continue to process the applications without the change of ownership. The quit claim deed they included with the application was sufficient to show an interest in the property.

Rights 22-7347 and 22-13210 were decreed in 2008. TR Golf submitted the extension of time at the very end of the 2014 calendar year. To avoid forfeiture resumption of use must begin immediately after the extension of time expires.
