Luke,

Thank you for your email and bringing this to our attention. It looks like our database erroneously identified the lease expiration of 34-7052 in 2014. We have corrected that database to reflect an expiration of 2018. Please have your client disregard our notice and I apologize for the mistake.

Subject: Water Bank Lease for Water Right No. 34-7052

Cherie,

My client, Mitchell Sorensen, contacted me regarding a letter he received from you relating to the Water Bank lease for water right no. 34-7052. In that letter, you indicated that the lease will expire on December 31, 2014. I have attached a copy of the letter to this email (Lease Expiration Notice). I can only assume that there has been some mistake in your office. This water right was accepted into the Water Bank this spring for a five year term that expires on December 31, 2018. I have also attached the Lease Approval and highlighted part 3 which clearly shows that the term of the lease "continue[s] in effect until December 31, 2018."

Please respond and verify that the letter referenced above was sent out in error.

Thank you.
