Richard Perrell notice of protest Attachment A

1 To same page Bureau of Reclamation report on Salmon Tract (1960) shows irrigation wells etc to lead a casual observer to believe irrigation from ground water is not feasible except within short distance of high line Canal. ~~Water is so~~

2 Water is salty, can't grow beans with "high line Canal" wells water source 5 farmers who tried it.

3 Domestic well at 2200 E 3300 N, (100 yds from proposed well) was drilled 1935 — ~~Dug~~ in 1960 Ting Brady Thru a Rock down it, water heard. Landlord Refused to put in a well, water was ^{California} continued to be hauled for house + livestock.
The conclusion — no "Native" water — developed from irrigation. Salmon Tract has gone 90% to sprinkler, which doesn't change the Agater (Jerome)
* This would be a continuing disservice to folks who lived on this road prior to the Hartlinger Patch Touch strike farms being created. These investments will be devalued 30%

6 Parrotts ~~Format~~ domestic wells will likely be affected by a drain of the aquifer that is sufficient to irrigate 80 acres. The real test is if this would actually work (.49 cfs) it would have been done before.
