Shelley,

As we discussed earlier today, the above referenced proof of beneficial use licensing examination report was hand-delivered to your office today to your attention. You will note that the document did get coil-bound (because I did not catch my staff in time after we spoke). I did include a compact disc with the electronic version for uploading to your file. Perhaps the coil binding will enable easy review and then can be deconstructed and punched for your file system.

This is the first of several exams that we will submit over the coming next few weeks for Meridian. Than you for your help with this. Please consider this as your transmittal letter.

Respectfully,

Ed Squires
