Mr. Jividen,

The protestants are required to attend the hearing concerning Allen Ranch's applications. Please arrange for an attorney to represent West Mountain Properties LLC at the hearing. A more formal notice concerning the need for an attorney will be sent to you shortly.

If a party does not appear, IDWR may move to dismiss the party from the proceedings pursuant to Rules 700-702 of IDWR's Rules of Procedure. (See below.)

Sincerely,

Shelley Keen

700.NOTICE OF PROPOSED DEFAULT AFTER FAILURE TO APPEAR OR RESPOND (RULE 700).

If an applicant or claimant or appellant, petitioner, protestant, complainant, or moving party fails to appear at the time and place set for hearing, or prehearing conference, on an application or claim or appeal, petition, complaint, or motion, or fails to respond to a written information inquiry, the presiding officer may serve upon all parties a notice of a proposed default order denying the application or claim or appeal, petition, complaint, or motion. The notice of a proposed default order shall include a statement that the default order is proposed to be issued because of a failure of the applicant or claimant or appellant, petitioner, complainant or moving party to appear at the time and place set for hearing or prehearing conference, or to respond to the information inquiry. The notice of proposed default order may be mailed to the last known mailing address of the party proposed to be defaulted. (4-5-00)

701.SEVEN DAYS TO CHALLENGE PROPOSED DEFAULT ORDER (RULE 701).

Within seven (7) days after the service of the notice of proposed default order, the party against whom it was filed may file a written petition requesting that a default order not be entered. The petition must state the grounds why the petitioning party believes that default should not be entered.

702.ISSUANCE OF DEFAULT ORDER (RULE 702).

The agency shall promptly issue a default order or withdraw the notice of proposed default order after expiration of the seven (7) days for the party to file a petition contesting the default order or receipt of a petition. If a default order is issued, all further proceedings necessary to complete the contested case shall be conducted without participation of the party in default (if the defaulting party is not a movant) or upon the results of the denial of the motion (if the defaulting party is a movant). All issues in the contested case shall be determined, including those affecting the defaulting party. Costs may be assessed against a defaulting party.

Shelly,

I'm told you are the hearing officer for the West Mountain water wars. That is applications of the Allen ranch vs most of his neighbors.

I am a member of West Mountain Properties LLC, owner of the land where we don't want the water diverted.

Unfortunately, I am going in for a medical procedure at the time of the hearings.

Is there a way I can register my protest at the hearing without being there?

Thanks for your help

Dwight Jividen
