Hi Cherie,

Yes, that is correct. The invoice has been submitted for payment, therefore you should receive this by next week. Please let me know if you do not see a payment, and I will do additional research.

Thanks so much for your help, and have a lovely Thanksgiving!

Thanks,

Traci May

Subject: FW: 2013 Water Supply Bank Rental Agreement

Hello Tracy,

This email is a follow-up of our conversation from this morning. From what I understand, a payment will be sent into our offices $705.60 by next week. Apparently, Mr. Standlee did use water in the 2013 season and would like to continue with his rental agreement until it expires. I look forward to receiving the payment next week. Thanks for all your help.

Subject: 2013 Water Supply Bank Rental Agreement

Hello Tracy,

Thank you very much for your help today. I have attached an invoice, of sorts, to this email. The payment for the 2013 season was due March 15, 2013. Please let me know how to proceed. I have included some possible scenarios:

- If water was diverted in connection with the rental agreement in 2013
 - then the payment is due immediately and the agreement will be due again for the 2014 season on March 15
- If water was not diverted in connection with the rental agreement
 - then no payment is due and the agreement will be considered null and void
 - a new rental agreement would need to be submitted if Mr. Standlee would like to divert water pursuant to the rental agreement in the future
- If you did submit a payment to IDWR
 - then please submit a copy of the cashed check and IDWR will ensure that your agreement does not become null and void

Thanks again! Have a great evening.
