Hi Craig,

I have attached the Forest Service Special Use Permit which gives me the right to access their property to service my cistern. As you will see, the Permit provides the name and contact information of the Forest Service contact who visited the site about a year ago. It also provides an aerial photo of the property and a USGS map showing the cabin location vis a vis the cistern. Finally, the attachment also has a picture of the cistern. You will see, the picture was taken soon after the Mustang fire that burned through that area a year ago and before I had been back to the cabin to "clean-up" around the cistern.

Hopefully, this information will be useful to you.

Thank you for the Change of Ownership link. I will access that information and prepare the appropriate forms.

In the interim, please let me know if you have any questions or if the map and information attached is not sufficient for your needs.

Thanks you again for your help.

Best regards,

Kevin Kohn

Dear Mr. Kohn,

I just wanted to drop you a quick line and let you know that I haven't had the chance to put a map together for you yet so you could identify the location of the spring and your cabin that the water is used on. I don't think I will get to it till next week so I wanted to drop you a line and let you know I didn't forget about you. I am out Friday and have meetings starting in 7 minutes thru the rest of the day.

In the meantime, here is the link to the change of ownership form.

I will be in touch. Sorry for the delay.

If you had the time, you could just send me a google map with the spring and home located on that along with the USFS exam information. Or I can send you a map next week.

Respectfully,

Craig L. Saxton
