On second George, I see that the county hasn't updated their database yet on my side. Do happen to know who the new owner is and how to contact them?

Cherie

Hello George,

Thank you very much for contacting IDWR with your water right matters. The new owner must file a Change in Ownership form in order to make the current owners of 80 Cowboy Way the owners of the appurtenant water right. I will attempt to reach the new owners of the property via mail in order to solicit the change in ownership. Thank you again for bringin this to our attention.

Sincerely,

Subject: Death and Water Rights Sold

To Whom It My Concern,

Marjorie J and Steve F Phillips have both died in the past few years. Steve died most recently in June of 2012. The property which had their water rights has been sold by the estate. This property is near Challis and has a physical address of 80 Cowboy Way. The water rights went with the sale of this property. Marjorie or Steve had no other water rights.

I am George Phillips, Marjorie and Steve's son. I am writing so that you can cease sending mailers to their address. You can contact me, if needed, at (208) 879-2511 or by email at 1georgechallis@gmail.com.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

George Phillips
