Hi Mark,

I'm sorry for the confusion. I am sending the 2013 billing within the next couple of weeks. Because you hadn't paid yet for 2013, your rental was naturally flagged for this letter. I should have dug a little deeper before sending that when I was going to send the billing so soon. Just pay the fee due by the beginning of the irrigation season and you will be fine. I will print a copy of this email and scan it to the file in question so there won't be any more confusion. Thanks for your patience and give me a call or send me another email if you need anything. Hope you had a good Christmas.

Monica

Hi Monica.

Pursuant to earlier conversations I had with you, it was my understanding that the 5 year extension was already approved, and when you send me billing this coming spring that I pay, all would be great. I don't get that from the received letter I have attached. To my understanding, everything required of me has been submitted and received by IDWR.

Could you please clarify for me?
