Made at: Idaho Falls, Idaho

Borrower:

Kent Wood and Betty Wood, husband and wife

Elma Wood, Trustee of the Elma Wood Family Trust
571 W 225 S
Driggs, ID 83422

2. Borrower's promise to repay

Borrower understands that the lender may transfer this note. The lender or anyone to whom this note is transferred is called the "Holder." Borrower promises to pay the principal sum plus interest in money of the United States of America to the order of Holder.

3. Interest

Interest will be charged on unpaid principal until the full amount of the principal has been paid. Borrower will pay interest at a monthly rate of 4.77%. The interest will start to accrue on the date of the note.

If Borrower defaults under the terms of this note, from the date of default forward until Borrower's default has been cured, Borrower will pay interest at the Default Interest Rate instead of the Interest Rate. The Default Interest Rate is 12%.

4. Payments

Borrower will pay level monthly payments of interest and principal in the amount of $1,631.01 starting October 1, 2009. The entire principal and all interest accruing on it is due on the Maturity Date. Borrower may make a full prepayment or partial prepayments without penalty prior to the maturity date.

Borrower will make all payments at 571 W 225 S, Driggs, ID, 83422, or at a different place the Holder requires.

All payments will first be applied to accrued interest then to principal. Prepayment of principal will be applied to payments in the inverse order of payment due dates.

5. Borrower's failure to repay as required

5.1. Default

Borrower will be in default if:

- 1) Borrower does not make a payment on the note when due;

- 2) If (a) Borrower makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, (b) file a petition in bankruptcy, (c) is adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt, under the federal bankruptcy code as now or later in effect, or under any applicable state insolvency law; or
- 3) Any bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar proceeding is started against Borrower and has not been dismissed by the 60th day after the date the proceeding was started, or
- 4) Borrower consents to the appointment of any receiver for any substantial part of the Borrower's property, or an involuntary appointment of any such receiver is not discharged within 60 days of the appointment.

5.2. Notice of default and right to accelerate

If Borrower is in default, the Holder may send Borrower a written notice telling Borrower that if Borrower does not pay the overdue amount by a certain date, the Holder may require Borrower to pay by a date certain the full amount of unpaid principal and all the accrued interest. That date certain must be at last thirty days after the date on which the notice is delivered or mailed to Borrower.

5.3. Preservation of Holder's rights

When Borrower is in default, even if the Holder has not required Borrower to pay the full amount of unpaid principal and all of the interest Borrower owes on the note by a date certain, the Holder will still have the right to do so at any time for so long as Borrower remains in default.

5.4. Payment of Holder's costs and expenses

If Borrower is in default, the Holder will have the right to require Borrower to pay all Holder's costs, fees and expenses in enforcing this note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law.

6. Waivers

Any person who has obligations under this note waives the rights of Presentment and Notice of Dishonor. "Presentment" means the right to require the Holder to demand payment of amounts due. "Notice of Dishonor" means the right to require the Holder to give notice to other persons that amounts due have not been paid.

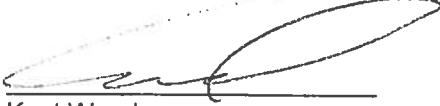

7. Security

This note is secured by a Deed of Trust dated October 5, 2007, the terms of which are made a part of this note. The Deed of Trust is referred to in this Note as "Security Documents". In addition to the protections given to the Holder under this note, the terms of the Security Documents protect the Holder from possible losses, which might result if Borrowers do not keep the promises Borrowers make in this note. The Security Documents may describe additional conditions under which Borrowers may be required to make immediate payment in full of all amounts Borrowers owe under this note. Borrowers may be referred to as grantor or debtor and Holder may be referred to as secured party or beneficiary in the Security Documents.
