Jo:

I'm just running out of my office, so I'll have to double check the rule tomorrow, but the cover letter says 14 days from the "service date," and the date on the letter and approved transfer I received is August 13th. Regardless, thanks for the quick response confirming that your intent was a petition for reconsideration, not a petition for hearing.

Rob,

The order was served on the 14th, so the 28th is appropriate for the Petition for Reconsideration.

Jo:

Thanks for the copy of the petition. Did you mean to have this as a petition for hearing? Under the rules, a petition for hearing is permitted within 15 days of when the order was issued, and that is today. A petition for reconsideration must be filed within 14 days of the issued order, and so if you intended to file a petition for reconsideration, it is not timely because it should have been filed yesterday.

Thanks,

Robert L. Harris
